Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

An Advent Examination of Conscience

During Advent, we look forward to welcoming Jesus, Emmanuel (" God-with-us".) It is a season of preparation, and there is no better way to prepare our hearts and souls for the coming of Christ than by celebrating the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Here's an examination of conscience that offers prompts for making a great confession. The examination is divided into different gifts we have received from God. Experiencing the mercy of God in Advent could lead to the best Christmas ever! Watch the bulletin for multiple opportunities in the parish to celebrate Reconciliation.

In preparation for the Sacrament of Reconciliation, I examine various aspects of my life, considering the many gifts God has given me, and how I have responded…

THE GIFT OF GOD AND MY DISCIPLESHIP:
Do I trust in God? Are there times when I despair? Do I pray daily, taking time to praise God? Am I mindful of all God has given me? How am I responding to the call to share my faith with others, to lead others to Christ? Do I participate in the Eucharist as an act of praise and thanksgiving? Does the time I spend with God show that God is a priority in my life?

THE GIFT OF FAMILY AND FRIENDS:
Do I let busyness get in the way of my most important relationships? Do I take out my problems and worries on others? Do I build myself up by tearing others down? Do I let resentment and lack of forgiveness overcome me? Do the people who are closest to me know that I care about them?

THE GIFT OF MYSELF:
Do I treat myself with respect? Do I take care of my body, my health? Do I treat the gift of sexuality – mine and others' – with appropriate dignity? Am I careful about how I 'feed' my body, my mind, my heart?

THE GIFT OF THIS WORLD:
Do I respect God's world? Do my actions show that I treasure God's creation? Does my caring and concern reach beyond my immediate family and friends to include those in need? Do I live as a person of peace?

Wishing you a truly blessed Advent,

Msgr. Rob

~ Youth Ministry ~

The message proclaimed throughout Advent is this: Prepare your hearts, for our God is sending a Savior, Emmanuel, a name which means, God-with-us. God is ready to give us a fresh vision and the grace we need to lose self and find God. God wants to work in and through us for the greater honor and glory of God. That is why God expects great things from us, which are in fact, possible by the grace of God at work in our lives.

Where is God calling YOU to PRAY, SERVE & WORSHIP to prepare for the birth of Jesus?

Child of Light

St. Aloysius 23rd Annual Advent-Christmas Concert
Sunday, December 13, at 2:00 PM

As our Christmas Concert draws closer, I'd like to share some background on two interesting and exciting selections on this year's program. James Biery's Surge inluminare sets a text inspired by Isaiah 60, "Arise, shine, for your light has come." The selection was written for the 2006 Advent concert at the Cathedral of St. Paul, Minnesota, and its Latin text, harp accompaniment, rhythmic musical texture, and melodic lines recall a spirited medieval dance. Lyrical, chant-like passages that accompany God's promises of "light and love beyond all measure" alternate with the joyful Surge inluminare refrain, and the piece ends with brilliant Alleluias, resolving into a radiant major chord signifying light breaking into the world.

Rollo Dilworth's Jesus, What a Wonderful Child is based on a beloved gospel song, often credited to Margaret Wells Allison of the Angelic Gospel Singers, who recorded it in 1950. Dilworth's arrangement, with its gospel swing rhythms, written for piano, brass, and rhythm section, builds to an energetic and joyful proclamation by the choir of "Glory be to the newborn King!"

Please join us for this festive afternoon of music!

Music Notes for the First Sunday of Advent as well as expanded Concert Music Notes, are available by clicking or scanning the QR code:
