Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Some Questions Prompted by the Visit of the Magi

Epiphany marks that moment when the larger world discovers the newborn King as the three wise travelers "from the East" make their way to Bethlehem. They risk the wrath of King Herod by following the path to the infant King. As we begin a new year of following the Lord Jesus, I thought I would throw out some questions that will help us think and pray about how we follow the Messiah. I am hopeful that they will be helpful. May the year ahead be filled with grace and many blessings!

Monsignor Rob

- The Magi are searching for Jesus, but they start by looking in the wrong place. Where might your expectations be keeping you from seeing God working in your life?
- Herod's dark side has him clinging to power at all costs. What is a place in your life where you might need to let go of some power or control?
- The Magi finally encounter Jesus not in the palace they expected, but in a lowly stable. When have you encountered God in a surprising place?
- What element of your faith experience makes you truly joyful? What riches of the Lord do you see, hear, feel that make your heart overflow?
- What gifts are you able to bring to God that honor and symbolize who God is: the Creator, the Savior, the One who sanctifies us?

Eucharistic Adoration

Fridays from 7:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration begins immediately following the 7:00 a.m. Mass and will conclude with Benediction at 5:15 p.m. prior to Mass. (There is 3:00 p.m. recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy followed by the Rosary.)

If you can spare 30 or 60 minutes to adore Our Lord please contact Anne Cross at:
EucharisticAdoration06840@gmail.com

Sick Calls, Communion Calls, Anointing of the Sick and Hospital Visits

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Fr. David at frdavid@starcc.com or Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.
