Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Dear Friends,

I am sharing some bittersweet news with you in this column. Bishop Caggiano has appointed our own Father David Roman as pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Fairfield, effective February 1, 2024. In our lives as priests, we anticipate that we will move to where we are needed as we cooperate with the Holy Spirit in concert with the leadership and vision of our bishop. Father Victor Martin, the current pastor of Saint Thomas, will retire this month, and our bishop has recognized the many gifts and talents of Father David and has asked him to become the spiritual father of that large parish family. While I am saddened to see Father David leave the community of Saint Aloysius, I am confident that he is the right choice for Saint Thomas. To put it another way, I knew this day would come, I will miss him terribly – especially since I have been a part of his formation as a priest from before his first day in the seminary. But I know Father David will always have a very special place in his heart and prayer for the Saint Aloysius family of faith.

A priest's first assignment is always precious, and you should know that all of you have formed Father David into the amazing priest that he is. Your faithful witness, your constant prayers, your friendship, and your love and respect for him have challenged him and nurtured him into becoming a strong and loving priest of Jesus Christ. Father David has strengthened my priestly ministry by his commitment to prayer, his deep care for those who are challenged by illness and the many difficulties that come our way, and his desire to help all of God's people draw closer to Christ and the Church.

While at Saint Aloysius, Father David has been "all-in" and nothing got in the way of his generous spirit – not even COVID. He launched ministries that are thriving, he completed the spiritual direction program at the Ignatian Center for Spirituality at Fairfield University; and taught our children, their parents, and many others how to pray and live the life of a faithful disciple. Who he is and what he has done have made this parish a stronger and more vibrant family of believers. I am forever grateful for the gift that Father David has been as our brother in the rectory and to the entire community. Our task now is to pray him into this next adventure and thank him for the many ways in which he has brought Christ into our hearts and homes.

Please join me in thanking Father David and wishing him many blessings by attending one of the gatherings which will take place after each Mass on the weekend of January 27/28 in Stapleton Hall.

Having read the news about Father David, you might be wondering if we are going to welcome a new priest to the parish sometime soon. The answer is "yes." Bishop Caggiano has appointed Father Flavian Bejan to Saint Aloysius, effective February 1, 2024. Father Flavian, 33, is a native of Romania and was ordained there in 2016. He came to the U.S. shortly after ordination and has served as the parochial vicar of Saint Theresa Parish in Trumbull. Father Flavian was incardinated into the Diocese of Bridgeport on May 3, 2023. His uncle, Father Ciprian Bejan, is the pastor of Saint Lawrence Parish in Shelton.

Father Flavian is highly respected by parishioners and brother priests alike, and is known for his joyful spirit, pastoral heart, and great energy. Once Father Flavian arrives, he will tell us more of his story; in the meantime, please keep him in your prayers as he prepares to become part of our parish family.

Yours in Christ,

Monsignor Rob
