Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Life of a Priest

To live in the midst of the world without wishing its pleasures;
To be a member of each family,
yet belonging to none;
To share all suffering;
to penetrate all secrets;
To heal all wounds;
to go from men to God
and offer Him their prayers;
To return from God to men
to bring pardon and hope;
To have a heart of fire for Charity,
and a heart of bronze for Chastity
To teach and to pardon, console and bless always.
My God, what a life;
and it is yours,
O priest of Jesus Christ.

This reflection by Fr. Jean-Baptiste Henri Lacordaire, OP (1802-1861), speaks to the unique role of the priest in the lives of God's people. This weekend we pray Father David into the next parish family to which he has been called, and we do that with grateful hearts for his love for us.

One of the most difficult realities of priesthood is having to say goodbye to a parish family that has been such a gift to a priest. It is particularly tough to say goodbye to your first parish family! While we are happy for Father David because he is taking on the role of pastor, we acknowledge our sadness as he leaves our family of faith. The life of a priest is a life of service to God's people, of blessing and sacrament, of obedience to his bishop, and going to where he is needed. If we reflect on the meaning of priesthood and the role of priests in the life of God's people, it might make it easier for us to understand what God is asking of Father David and all of us at this moment.

Thank you, Father David, for being a good priest and loving us and blessing us. You will always be a part of our family of faith!

Monsignor Rob

~ Religious Education ~

The Religious Education staff and families want to send a heartfelt thank you to Fr. David Roman. His presence with our Religious Education Ministry has been wonderful and he will be deeply missed. Thank you for always being there every Sunday for the children, Mrs. Sibilia and Mrs. Osterndorf. We hope you will visit and wish you the best of luck on your new adventure as Pastor of St. Thomas Aquinas. We know you will be amazing in your new role.

One of our Pre-K classes presented Fr. David with their homemade stained glass window. I'm sure he will be hanging it in his new home so he will always remember us.

Fr. David gave a suitcase presentation on what to bring to First Reconciliation to some of our 2nd graders on Sunday, Jan 21st.

The 2024 Bishop's Appeal provides the funds for the pastoral, educational and charitable ministries of the Diocese of Bridgeport. This year's theme, One In Christ, seeks to unite the Diocese in service, compassion and faith as we work together to bring our sisters and brothers together to encounter and embrace the power of the Lord Jesus in our lives. Next week you will receive a letter from Bishop Caggiano on this year's appeal. Please take the time to read the information thoroughly, give prayerful consideration on how you can help and make your sacrificial gift to the campaign.

Thank you.
