Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Holy Week Humility

*Christ Jesus, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God
something to be grasped.
Rather, he emptied himself,
taking the form of a slave,
coming in human likeness;
and found human in appearance,
he humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.*

~Phillipians 2:6-8

In order to embrace the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus – we have to embrace the humility of Jesus. His entrance into Jerusalem which we celebrate on this Palm Sunday is nothing like that of a king. He rides on a donkey without any entourage or fanfare. He lives out his kingship on this earth in humble obedience to the will of His Father and dies for the sake of sinners.

The humility of Jesus that marks his suffering and dying challenges us to examine our own humility, especially when it comes to submission to the will of God. As we begin Holy Week, we might ask ourselves, “Has my Lenten observance of prayer, fasting, and almsgiving helped me to die to self and begin to live for others?” “Has my contemplation of the words of Scripture throughout these 40 days brought me to a better understanding of what God has done for me by sending His Son into the world and humbling Himself for my sake?” “Has my desire to make plans without God been tempered by a stronger desire to let God take the lead?” “Has my heart been healed by the gift of mercy in the Sacrament of Reconciliation recently?” “Has my posture toward others been changed so that I listen in love so as to be humbled by the presence of Christ in others?” “Has God challenged me to give up what prevents me from keeping it simple?”

If we answered “no” to any of these questions, it’s not too late. Let us ask the Lord Jesus who “humbled himself” for our sake, to give us the gift of humility and walk with Him through the events of Holy Week so that we may empty ourselves of what prevents us from experiencing the overwhelming gift of His sacrificial love.

I invite you to join in the beautiful liturgies of Holy Week. Take the time to watch and pray as this great mystery of our faith unfolds before our eyes. Trust me, you will be humbled and strengthened by what you experience.

Yours in Christ,
Monsignor Rob

Tenebrae - Wed., March 27 at 7pm

Tenebrae ("shadows" or "darkness") is a Holy Week service that is at least 1,000 years old.

Tenebrae would be sung each day of the Triduum in a church lit only by 15 candles. These were extinguished one by one until the church was left in darkness. At that point, a loud noise ("strepitus") would be produced – sometimes by slamming a hymnal or other book shut, sometimes by stomping on the floor – symbolizing the earthquake after Christ's death.

Like the "lessons and carols" services familiar at Christmas, Tenebrae consists of hymns and readings, the ones proper to Lauds and Matins for the days of the Triduum. Until the mid-1950s, when the Easter Vigil had been revived, nearly every parish in the United States sung Tenebrae on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Today, churches with Tenebrae services usually sing them once, on a Lenten evening – this year we will have Tenebrae at St. A's on Wednesday of Holy Week.

Our Lady's Guild

A popular Marian devotion related to Our Lady of Sorrows is the Seven Sorrows Rosary, which was originally revealed to St. Bridget of Sweden in the 14th century. The devotion regained popularity with the apparitions of Our Lady of Kibeho in Rwanda in 1981, where Mary urged people to pray this Rosary. Our Lady promised, "If you say the Rosary of the Seven Sorrows and meditate on it well, you will find the strength you need to repent of your sins and convert your heart. Pray my Seven Sorrows to find repentance."

The devotion consists of praying seven sets of an Our Father and seven Hail Marys while meditating on the Seven Sorrows of Mary:

1. The prophecy of Simeon (Luke 2:34-35)
2. The flight into Egypt (Matthew 2:13-14)
3. The loss of the Child Jesus in the temple (Luke 2:43-45)
4. The meeting of Jesus and Mary on the Way of the Cross
5. The Crucifixion
6. The taking down of the Body of Jesus from the Cross
7. The burial of Jesus.

Our young at heart seniors were treated to our annual Trinity Tea, thanks to some of our Emmaus teens! Our afternoon was full of smiles, friendship, music and a little bit of corned beef!

All who have experienced the loss of a loved one are welcome to join us for the
