Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Christ, My Hope, Is Arisen

*Christians, to the Paschal Victim
 Offer your thankful praises!
 A Lamb the sheep redeems;
 Christ, who only is sinless,
 Reconciles sinners to the Father.
 Death and life have contended in that combat stupendous:
 The Prince of life, who died, reigns immortal.
 Speak, Mary, declaring
 What you saw, wayfaring.
 "The tomb of Christ, who is living,
 The glory of Jesus' resurrection;
 bright angels attesting,
 The shroud and napkin resting.
 Yes, Christ my hope is arisen;
 to Galilee he goes before you."
 Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining.
 Have mercy, victor King, ever reigning!
 Amen. Alleluia.*

This ancient hymn that celebrates Christ rising from the dead is sung before the Gospel on Easter Sunday and each day in the octave of Easter. The hymn ends with the acclamation "Yes, Christ my hope is arisen...Christ indeed from death is risen, our new life obtaining." With so much unrest in the world, we long to see light, justice, and a true and lasting peace. The hope that comes from celebrating Christ's victory over death means that our prayers for a peaceful and just world are not in vain; all shall be well because "the Prince of Life... reigns immortal." We long to witness such a peaceful world, but if we put our trust in the "victor King," we know it will come.

Perhaps our prayer this Easter should be that the world will spend more time asking God to write our story and inspire our leaders and soften our stony hearts. Perhaps we should take our Easter joy out into the world and proclaim Christ risen. Such an act would help those who dwell in darkness, fear, and hopelessness to rise with Christ to a whole new life. Perhaps if we act each day as if we truly believe Christ is risen from the dead, we may impress upon those who write our laws and teach our children that there is a way of meaningful living that has everything to do with believing and following the One who created us for a life-giving purpose. Put more simply, if we sing "Alleluia" for the fifty days of Easter, each one of us will find more joy and bring more hope to anyone who hears our song. Happy Easter!

Yours in the Risen Christ,
Monsignor Rob

Encounter and Accompaniment for Teens in StAY

Our high school teens are invited to come together in prayer, worship and service as we walk with them on their journey of faith. St. Aloysius offers a Teen Mass on Sundays at 5:00 p.m. where our Music Ministry sets the tone for our teen-friendly celebration of the Eucharist with upbeat, contemporary music blended with traditional hymns. Teens have the opportunity to sit together in community, serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, readers, ushers, gift bearers and singers on our Sing-A-Long Sundays. Please contact Youth Minister Chris Otis to get involved in the many roles that are available at the Teen Mass.

We offer a monthly Before-School Teen Mass, Teen Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a Teen Rosary Group, as well as Teen Bible Groups where our girls and guys groups connect scripture to their lives as teens.

St. Aloysius Church has a mission of engaging high school teens in service to our brothers and sisters in need. We serve as the Catholic Service Corps which aims to foster Catholic identity by uniting young people to be the face of Christian service to others. Our teens are engaged in outreach to children of single mothers in crisis, the elderly, the homeless and friends with special needs. This summer, we will be headed to Catholic Heart Workcamp for our summer mission trip, will attend the Steubenville East Youth Conference and will be helping to host a diocesan Summer Mission Day with other parishes on July 11. LIMITED SPOTS LEFT ... more information/forms at <https://starcc.com/youth/>

Each time we witness our teens at the 5:00 p.m. Teen Mass, Teen Adoration, Teen Rosary, our Emmaus Teen retreats and the many opportunities to serve our brothers and sisters in need through the Catholic Service Corps, we are in awe of the work Christ is doing through them! We have a beautiful community of passionate, committed missionary disciples of Christ who realize the importance of true personal encounter with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and the understanding that God continuously calls them to prayer, worship and service. They are the face of Christ to so many and do, as our Holy Father shares, spread the joy of the Gospel! If your teen has not joined us yet, we encourage you to reach out so we can help facilitate Their involvement!

You can access signups for everything we do by going to <https://www.signupgenius.com/findasignup> and entering the email youth@starcc.com Not on our parent or student email lists? Contact Youth Minister Chris Otis at youth@starcc.com.

Our Diocese will be celebrating a Eucharistic Revival in April and May. The purpose of the revival is to renew our understanding and reverence for Christ who is present in the Most Holy Sacrament. At Saint Aloysius we will offer opportunities for us to learn more about the meaning and significance of the Real Presence of Jesus. Our first offering will be a talk given by Fr. Tim Scannell who assists here at St. Aloysius on some weekends. Fr. Tim is a professor of Scripture at St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers. He is a former pastor and a long-time teacher of Catholic Theology and Scripture. Fr. Tim's talk will be offered in the morning and repeated in the evening; please join us.

Queen of heaven, rejoice! Alleluia!

For he whom thou didst deserve to bear, Alleluia!
Has risen as he said, Alleluia!

Pray for us to God, Alleluia!
Rejoice and be glad, oh Virgin Mary, Alleluia!
Because our Lord is truly risen, Alleluia!
Let us pray.

Oh God, who by the resurrection of thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, didst vouchsafe to make glad the whole world,

Grant, we beseech Thee, that through the intercession
of the Blessed Virgin Mary, his mother,

We may attain the joys of eternal life. Through the same Christ, our Lord. Amen. (Regina Caeli)

Demonstrating remarkable entrepreneurial spirit and unwavering faith, she builds a remarkable legacy of compassion and care, establishing an empire of hope that transforms countless lives and leaves an indelible mark on the world.
