Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Clinging to the Vine

*Just as a branch cannot bear fruit on its own unless it remains on the vine,
so neither can you unless you remain in me.
I am the vine, you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me and I in him will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.*

These words from Sunday's Gospel remind us plainly that we must spend our entire life staying connected to Jesus who is the vine. Aside from the regular pruning that the Lord does, we should never cut ourselves off from being one with Jesus who gives us all that is life-giving. Clinging to Jesus the Vine means being in true relationship with Him and therefore in authentic relationship with all others who are the "branches." In many ways, a parish is a portrait of Jesus as vine and parish family as branches. Loving Jesus by choosing Gospel living means that we take all that we need from the One who gives us true food. Relying on the vine means opting for authentic living and staying away from other sources that feed ego only.

In this season of Confirmation, First Holy Eucharist, weddings, and graduations, we see how important it is to heed Jesus' words to "remain in me." Confirmation is not graduation from the journey of faith; it's an invitation to go out and bear fruit for the world that needs the energy of our young teens. First Holy Communion should be the beginning of receiving Jesus every Sunday for a lifetime, because "without me you can do nothing." Marriage is an invitation to rely on the other (husband, wife, God) and live FOR the other so that the relationship will bear fruit. Graduation is an opportunity to look back on blessings and accomplishments with the desire to ask God "what's next?"

Admitting that without God I can do nothing is not a sign of weakness, but a desire to do all things with Him who strengthens us! I hope you're still experiencing Easter joy. Pray for one another, especially "branches" that are struggling on the vine.

God bless you!

Monsignor Rob

Second Collection this weekend is for Catholic Home Missions Appeal and Black and Indian Mission

This weekend, our special collection supports the Catholic Home Missions Appeal and Black and Indian Mission collection. Nearly 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. This appeal assists our brothers and sisters both here in the United States and elsewhere who do not have access to basic pastoral services like Mass, the sacraments, and religious education. Through your support, help is available for mission dioceses form vibrant faith communities and strengthens the Church at home and also Black and Indian missions through grants to African American, Native American and Alaska Native Catholic communities. Please be generous.

NATIONAL Eucharistic Pilgrimage

Shortly after his Resurrection, Jesus accompanied two disciples on their journey from Jerusalem to Emmaus—walking with them in their grief, offering hope, and finally revealing himself through the breaking of the bread. Jesus wants to do the same for YOU!

As part of the 2024 National Eucharistic Procession beginning on May 17th in California, Texas, Minnesota and Connecticut, the Blessed Sacrament will proceed through the diocese of Bridgeport starting on Pentecost Sunday (May 19th) and arrive at St Thomas More Church in Darien on Tuesday, May 21st at 12 noon for a 2 hour Adoration in the Church as well as a procession before being transferred to the Basilica in Stamford at 3 pm.

The start of the Procession on Pentecost Sunday begins the joyful and passionate 14-day celebration of the Holy Eucharist across our diocese culminating in a Corpus Christi Eve Mass celebrated by Bishop Caggiano on Saturday, June 1st at Fairfield University where over 3,000 of the faithful are expected to attend. Click here for 2024 Eucharistic Procession Mission Summary from the diocese for more information.

Parishioners of St Aloysius Church have been invited to attend the Eucharistic Procession events at St Thomas More Church in Darien on May 21st. Please register for the events on May 21st by accessing the following link.
