Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Getting Ready!

As we move toward the end of the liturgical year, our attention is turned to the "end times;" that moment when Jesus will come back and take us to Himself. The scene as it is described in this Sunday's Gospel is surreal and terrifying:

"In those days after that tribulation
the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
and the stars will be falling from the sky,
and the powers in the heavens will be shaken."

But the outcome is glorious:

"And then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds'
with great power and glory,
and then he will send out the angels
and gather his elect from the four winds, from the end of the earth to the end of the sky."

We spend a fair amount of time getting ready for things – the holidays, a wedding, a vacation, a move, and so forth. The scripture for this Sunday and those of the early days of Advent challenge us to get ready for Jesus' return in glory. How shall we prepare?

1. By our full participation in the sacramental life: Mass, Eucharist, and Reconciliation (Confession).
2. By our full commitment to Gospel living (loving God and loving neighbor).

Jesus is coming back, and in our life of faith we have been given everything we need to prepare for that day. May we pray, worship, and do the prep work now so that on the last day what we experience will be truly glorious!

Yours in Christ,

Monsignor Rob

Confirmation

Melanie and Scott Barnard delivered over 375 gift bags for Veterans and front-line workers to our local VA Hospital this week. The volunteer director at the hospital told Melanie, the gifts they receive from St. Aloysius mean so much to them, especially the handwritten notes and prayers. Below are some of our Confirmation students working on their letters and bags. Other photos are of Veterans and workers receiving their bags.

Our Confirmation students happily put their Faith into Action by making sandwiches and delivering donations to the Food Pantry to make sure we meet the needs of our hungry brothers and sisters.

Ambassador Program

What is the "Ambassador Program?"

The Ambassador Formation initiative is aimed at equipping parishioners with the knowledge and tools to confidently talk to others about their faith and encourage those that may be disenfranchised with the Catholic Church to reengage with its teachings and spiritual guidance. It is also a great tool to start new initiatives at the parish level.

How can I become an "Ambassador?"

To become an "Ambassador," one needs to have a willing and desirous heart to share Jesus and His Church with the world. There is an initial discernment and formation process that future ambassadors will go through before being commissioned and sent forth to their parishes to help build Christ's Church.
