Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Fishing with My Father

When I was a kid, one of my favorite summer vacation activities was going fishing with my dad. The early morning adventure began with searching for worms: no glittery store-bought bait for us! The best harvests took place after a good soaking rain because no digging was required! My mom would supply the empty deli container to store the wiggly creatures, and my dad would prepare a thermos of hot chocolate. After placing our fishing rods in the cavernous trunk of our '62 Chevy Impala, we headed to the lake. On the short ride, I would dream of a bountiful catch and looked forward to bragging once we returned to the house. Once we arrived, we took our favorite spot on the dock, hooked the worms, and cast into the lake. I painstakingly applied every lesson my dad taught me about casting, moving the rod gently, and waiting – keeping perfectly still until I felt the tug of the line. The rising sun warming the cool morning air and the mounting anticipation of the quintessential “great catch” was a moment of pure childhood joy. Alas, the fish we caught were very few and very small. But that didn’t matter to my dad who had an amazing way of making me feel like a champ while I reeled in the tiniest of fish – some smaller than the guppies I had in my fish tank at home. “Good catch, Rob!” he would exclaim; and if he had his prized Kodak camera with him, the “catch” was preserved for a lifetime on the refrigerator door. For me, the lack of a prized haul of fish was overshadowed by the grace-filled time I spent with my dad on those cool mornings on the lake.

In the Gospel this Sunday (Luke 5:1-11), the fishermen are having a lackluster morning of fishing, but as soon as Jesus shows up, the story changes: the grace-filled presence of Jesus transforms disappointment into the joy of an abundant catch. Peter is awestruck as he realizes exactly who Jesus is and therefore deems himself unworthy: “Depart from me, Lord, for I am a sinful man.” Peter’s companions are equally as astonished. Jesus responds with words of consolation and challenge: “Do not be afraid; from now on you will be catching men.” And then we are told that “when they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him.” These new disciples abandoned what they knew and followed Jesus – not because he worked a miracle, but because they realized that he offers the great gift of transforming grace. They abandon the fear of the unknown to walk with someone who would teach them how to live in the truth, with hope, relying on the grace-filled presence of God.

God loves us in moments of triumph and disappointment. Because Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life, we should never be afraid when walking with Him. His grace is enough to transform our fears into courageous moments of speaking truth and acting in love for the sake of the Gospel. He will give us what we need and teach us to how to fish.

In sum, I would say that I followed in my dad’s footsteps not because he was a great fisherman, but because he taught me how to love. I would follow him anywhere.

Monsignor Rob

STEPHEN MINISTRY

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.

A Note from Chris Otis asking for YOUR Support!

Over the past 12 years, our parish has witnessed a revitalized spirit amongst our youth ... God has worked through our clergy and so many adult mentors who have been receptive to knowing that they are called to be vehicles to accompany our young people and help guide them to sacred spaces where they have the opportunity to encounter The One, who is Jesus!

Many of those young people have graduated high school, gone off to college and then to the life of a working young adult who desires to live an authentic Catholic Christian life in the community of life minded people. Our young adults have found their souls thirsting for God and it is the responsibility of each and every one of us to help them ... to be able to help them say, "God, take me to where YOU want me to go."

So how do we help them?

First, join me in praying for them!

We can be their prayer warriors in the noisy world!

Secondly, help those that are not affiliated with our YA Group connect!

Do you know a 18-30 year-old who needs this grace-filled faith community? Our Young Adult Group is over 75 strong and gather together for Bible studies, Eucharistic Adoration, Mass, Scriptural Rosaries, book discussions, guest speakers and social events!

Join me in Supporting them at their Gala on Saturday, February 22

I am so deeply touched to have been asked to be their honoree. I have known many of these young adults since they were young, and it is so inspiring to see how they have chosen to center their lives on Christ. This ministry is more important than ever as young adults navigate an increasingly challenging world. It serves as a beacon of hope, offering both spiritual nourishment and a sense of belonging! They have a desire to expand their ministry, and they need our help! This Gala is not just for the young adults to gather ... is it for adults with younger children who will one day have the opportunity to be a part of what they are building and it is for those who now are in a later phase of life who wish to help pass along our faith to the younger generation!

Please join me and my husband John!

If you cannot join us in person and are able, please consider supporting our young adults with a donation.

St. Aloysius Parish Men's Lenten Retreat

March 28-30, 2025

Holy Family Retreat Center, West Hartford

Jesus calls us to remain in love as the branches remain with the vine for life and sustenance. We know that Jesus prayed often and taught his disciples to do the same. Pope Francis has named this year a "Year of Prayer." Since prayer is a means of holding that connection between humanity and God, we invite you to come and explore the depths of a life of prayer and learn ways to maintain the sacred connection to God through Christ, the true vine.

The retreat begins with a buffet dinner from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on evening of Friday, 3/28 and concludes Sunday, 3/30 with the celebration of Mass at 10:45 a.m. and a hot brunch at noon. (You can come late or leave early if necessary.)

The suggested cost is $350. Partial and full scholarships to attend are available.
