Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

How to Love Our Enemies

This Sunday's Gospel challenges us to love our enemies. It's a perfect example of Jesus asking us to take it up a notch and step outside our comfort zone in order to model His extravagant love. Even if we consider ourselves to be the nicest person on the planet, we all have "enemies" – people who try our patience, cut across the grain, push our buttons, etc. The life-giving love that flows from the heart of Jesus should be our inspiration to begin the process of forgiving and forgetting, smiling through the difficult conversations, and loving those we don't like. The psalm for Sunday tells us how God acts in the presence of enemies: "Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and abounding in kindness. Not according to our sins does he deal with us, nor does he requite us according to our crimes." (Psalm 103)

If you are troubled by enemies and find it difficult to forgive, consider Jesus on the cross and remember his acts of forgiveness for the thief next to him and the ones who nailed him to the cross itself. Let that be our new context for loving difficult people. May we remember that everyone has a story that informs the way they love (or don't love). May we see everyone with eyes enlightened by mercy and Christlike love.

Thanks for your faithfulness and love.

Monsignor Rob

Congratulations to our four newly graduated Stephen Ministers who were commissioned by Msgr. Rob last Sunday at the 11:30 Mass.

L to R: Dick Laughton, Amy VanBuren, Msgr. Rob, Rita Ferri Missing - Janet Jorgensen.

Our St. Aloysius Stephen Ministers are compassionate, faithful, highly-trained lay men and women commissioned by our parish to be available to meet with parishioners who are: Experiencing challenging life situations, such as the loss, serious illness or disability of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job.

Stephen Ministers are there to listen with compassion, without judgment and in complete confidence so that you know you are not alone as you live with your challenges. The meetings are peaceful and confidential.

If you, or someone you know are experiencing a difficult life situation - please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister by contacting Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.

THE BUILDING CORNER

The St. Aloysius Parish Building Campaign

Our New Chapel

The new chapel will be a part of the school and meeting facility. It will allow us to hold liturgies and sacraments simultaneously.

The chapel exterior will be all stone with 8 stained glass windows, 3 gothic arched windows on each side and one at each end. It will seat up to 50 people and will have a piano.

Two red maple trees will flank the entrance to the chapel that leads from the parish green. There will also be a side entrance from the school.

For more information, contact the Parish Office: (203) 966-0020

Eucharistic Adoration

Fridays from 7:30 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.

Eucharistic Adoration begins immediately following the 7:00 a.m. Mass and will conclude with Benediction at 5:15 p.m. prior to Mass. (There is 3:00pm recitation of the Chaplet of Divine Mercy followed by the Rosary.)

If you can spare 30 or 60 minutes to adore Our Lord, contact Mary Ellen Kranzlin at: mkranzlin@gmail.com

Please join Monsignor Rob at
St. Aloysius Parish Men's Lenten Retreat
March 28-30, 2025

Holy Family Retreat Center, West Hartford

Jesus calls us to remain in love as the branches remain with the vine for life and sustenance. We know that Jesus prayed often and taught his disciples to do the same. Pope Francis has named this year a "Year of Prayer." Since prayer is a means of holding that connection between humanity and God, we invite you to come and explore the depths of a life of prayer and learn ways to maintain the sacred connection to God through Christ, the true vine.

The retreat begins with a buffet dinner from 6:00 to 7:30 p.m. on evening of Friday, 3/28 and concludes Sunday, 3/30 with the celebration of Mass at 10:45 a.m. and a hot brunch at noon. (You can come late or leave early if necessary.)

The suggested cost is $350. Partial and full scholarships to attend are available.

For more information, contact Kevin Leitão at 203-829-9408 or kevinleitao@mac.com.
