Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Seeing with New Eyes

I'm turning this week's column over to the Jesuit poet J. Janda because I believe that he speaks succinctly to the need for all of us who are sinners and who do a fair amount of judging of others to live a different way.

– Msgr. Rob

“Let the one among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her.” ~ John 8:7

The Light

You cannot change
others, no

but you can see them
with new eyes

Christ eyes

who sees
all with respect and understanding

J. Janda

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Msgr. Rob at frrob@starcc.com.

THE BUILDING CORNER The St. Aloysius Parish Building Campaign

Saint Carlo Acutis Chapel

Bishop Caggiano has asked that the new chapel at Saint Aloysius be named in honor of Blessed Carlo Acutis who will be canonized on April 27, 2025. The Saint Carlo Acutis Chapel will be one of the first in the world to be named in honor of this saint who entered Heaven at such a young age. Saint Carlo's holy life and his devotion to the Eucharist and the Blessed Virgin Mary will serve as inspiration to the generations who will pray in our chapel. As a parish family, we will begin what I am hopeful will be a tradition of devotion to him as we ask Saint Carlo to intercede, along with Saint Aloysius, for God's blessings upon all that we do in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Blessed Carlo, as the Church raises you to the honor of Sainthood, hear the prayers that the Saint Aloysius Parish Family brings to you. Draw us closer to Jesus Christ -- truly present in the Most Holy Eucharist -- enliven our faith, bless the project on which we have embarked, and help us always to do the will of God. Amen.

Teaching and Preaching the Gospel

"I came to O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation for Adults) with some trepidation. I was happily surprised to find myself warmly welcomed into an immediate and easy fellowship with others who had come questioning as I had. Together we asked, we sought, and we knocked-- and together we received, we found, and we were welcomed in. O.C.I.A. was, for me, the beginning of a new life and family with every one of my brothers and sisters in Christ." -- Rachel Gudenzi

Supporting the Bishop's Appeal unites us as One in Christ in support of those seeking a relationship with Christ and the Church by providing welcoming communities to discern the call to Catholicism through O.C.I.A.
