Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Palm Sunday with a Church Father

In preparing for Holy Week I was drawn to some of the Church Fathers, that group of writers in the early Church. Many of their inspired musings have been collected, preserved, and made widely available. I was struck by St. Andrew of Crete's words about Christ's entry into Jerusalem which is the Gospel of Palm Sunday. St. Andrew provides a powerful meditation on the simplicity of Christ's arrival as a challenge for us to approach Christ this Holy week with humility as we embrace Jesus who is meek and humble. I am sharing St. Andrew's words with you in this column, and I pray they will help you to enter more deeply into the mysteries of the holy week ahead.

Let us go together to meet Christ on the Mount of Olives. Today he returns from Bethany and proceeds of his own free will toward his holy and blessed passion, to consummate the mystery of our salvation. He who came down from heaven to raise us from the depths of sin, to raise us with himself, we are told in Scripture, above every sovereignty, authority and power, and every other name that can be named, now comes of his own free will to make his journey to Jerusalem. He comes without pomp or ostentation. As the psalmist says: He will not dispute or raise his voice to make it heard in the streets. He will be meek and humble, and he will make his entry in simplicity.

Let us run to accompany him as he hastens toward his passion, and imitate those who met him then, not by covering his path with garments, olive branches or palms, but by doing all we can to prostrate ourselves before him by being humble and by trying to live as he would wish. Then we shall be able to receive the Word at his coming, and God, whom no limits can contain, will be within us.

In his humility Christ entered the dark regions of our fallen world and he is glad that he became so humble for our sake, glad that he came and lived among us and shared in our nature in order to raise us up again to himself. And even though we are told that he has now ascended above the highest heavens – the proof, surely, of his power and godhead – his love for man will never rest until he has raised our earthbound nature from glory to glory, and made it one with his own in heaven. So let us spread before his feet, not garments or soulless olive branches, which delight the eye for a few hours and then wither, but ourselves, clothed in his grace, or rather, clothed completely in him.

We who have been baptized into Christ must ourselves be the garments that we spread before him. Now that the crimson stains of our sins have been washed away in the saving waters of baptism and we have become white as pure wool, let us present the conqueror of death, not with mere branches of palms but with the real rewards of his victory. Let our souls take the place of the welcoming branches as we join today in the children's holy song: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is the king of Israel.

I am looking forward to walking with you in the holy days ahead.

Mmgr. Rob

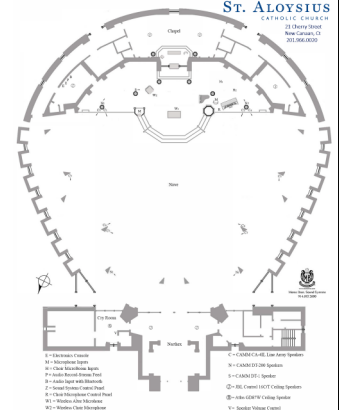

THE BUILDING CORNER The St. Aloysius Parish Building Campaign

A New Church Sound System

We are excited to announce that Monte Bros. Sound Systems, a leader in church audio installations (with over 50 years of experience), has begun installing a new sound system in St. Aloysius Church. We aim to have the system fully operational by Easter, ensuring crystal-clear projection of both music and the spoken word so that parishioners of all ages and hearing abilities can fully engage with the Liturgy.

This new system features an increased number of smaller, strategically-placed speakers designed to evenly distribute sound throughout the church. By tailoring the system to the unique acoustics of our building, this upgrade will provide clear, balanced audio for everyone, no matter where they are seated. Advanced digital processors will further refine the sound, minimizing echoes and enhancing clarity.

Monte Bros. has an impressive portfolio having updated the sound system at the Cathedral Basilica of Saints Peter and Paul in Philadelphia for Pope Francis's visit in 2016. They have also completed projects at the Basilica of the Co-Cathedral of the Sacred Heart in Charleston, West Virginia and St. Jude Church in Fredericksburg, Virginia.

Teaching and Preaching the Gospel

"Our Diaconate Formation Program provides support for men who feel "called" to the diaconate at all phases of their discernment. From inquiry through formation, we support and guide our candidates through four and one-half years of study, prayer, and discernment— all supported through gifts to the Bishop's Appeal. In total, we have 86 deacons in our diocese; 49 who are active and 37 retired, many who continue to serve in their parishes." - Deacon John DiTaranto, Director of the Diaconate, currently serving at St. Stephen Parish, Trumbull.

Through your donation to the Annual Bishop's Appeal, the financial burden of our formation program is minimized. This allows our deacon candidates to focus on their studies and discern their vocation in preparation for supporting our Bishop, the diocese and serving in their assigned parishes upon ordination and beyond.

Tenebrae Wed., April 16th at 7pm

Tenebrae (“shadows” or “darkness”) is a Holy Week service that is at least 1,000 years old. Tenebrae would be sung each day of the Triduum in a church lit only by 15 candles. These were extinguished one by one until the church was left in darkness. At that point, a loud noise (“strepitus”) would be produced – sometimes by slamming a hymnal or other book shut, sometimes by stomping on the floor – symbolizing the earthquake after Christ’s death.

Like the “lessons and carols” services familiar at Christmas, Tenebrae consists of hymns and readings, the ones proper to Lauds and Matins for the days of the Triduum. Until the mid-1950s, when the Easter Vigil had been revived, nearly every parish in the United States sung Tenebrae on Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday. Today, churches with Tenebrae services usually sing them once, on a Lenten evening – this year we will have Tenebrae at St. A’s on Wednesday of Holy Week.

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Through the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you stand in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land as a witness of peace, supporting Catholics there in parishes and schools, maintaining Christian shrines and caring for refugees in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!
