St. Aloysius Church, New Canaan, CT

Words from Chris Otis, Youth Ministry

"Let us thank God for holding you and your family in the palm of His hand during the frightful night of the tornado and may He continue to hold you in His palm as you navigate the future." I prayed this prayer over and over when I was blessed to sit with families of London, Kentucky who were living in trailers after their homes were damaged or destroyed by the recent tornado.

Thanks to the very generous support of you, our parishioners, I travelled down to Kentucky on a very special mission of mercy to present a check in the amount of $10,000 to St. Williams Catholic Church. They are ministering to the many of the families, as well as distributing $4,700 in gift cards to displaced families and purchasing over $800 worth of tarps for folks needing them to protect what is left of their homes.

Upon my arrival, Vicki and Judy from St. Williams took me on an hour long visit to the devastation areas, which took my breath away and weighed heavy on my heart. I saw the destruction of this F4 tornado which was on the ground for 89 minutes, tracked for 60 miles in this community and took the lives of 19 people. Before me was miles of rubble with recognizable personal items, vehicles so damaged that they cannot be driven away, houses with tarps over roofs, tangled metal from flipped trailers, homes with just partial walls and most saddening, areas of dirt where rubble had been cleared and now represent where a family's home once stood and now everything is gone.

I was uplifted the next day as we visited with families living in trailers, many who shared their hope and a deep faith and trust in God. Only by the hand and grace of God are some of these folks alive after listening to their stories. One family shared with me that their house was lifted off its foundation and flew 20-30 feet before being set down with minor injuries to those inside ... a 17 year old girl, alone in an apartment because her mother was at work was flung against a wall after which neighbors came to her rescue before the surviving structure collapsed into the basement (where they thankfully did not have time to go to take cover). To a man who will never go back to rebuild as the memories of that night are too much to bear as he recounted placing his family and dog under him and at one point had to use all of his might to pull his wife back under him as the tornado winds started to pull her from his grasp.

They were grateful for the gift cards, laundry soap and rolls of quarters and we prayed together. This was perhaps the most touching part of our visit and cemented in my mind the necessity to take time from our busy lives to be with those who need a caring smile or hug, to listen to them or to pray with or for them!

May this mission of mercy be an inspiration to us all to continue to answer God's call to reach out to those in need to share our time, talent and treasure! Beautiful encounters are waiting for us all! (Pictures from the visit can be found at www.starcc.com)

Chris Otis

The Parish Offices will be closed on Friday, July 4th in observance of Independence Day.

Please note: There is no 5:30 p.m. Mass on that day.

As always, a priest is available every day and night in case of emergencies.

Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is on hiatus and will resume on Friday, October 3rd, 2025.

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Msgr. Rob at frob@starcc.com.

Together in Faith...supporting our Retired Priests.

Retired priests, like Msgr. Edward Monsignor Surwilo receive ongoing health care, and those living at the Catherine Dennis Keefe Queen of the Clergy Residence in Stamford reside in a comfortable and prayerful living environment.

"From the first day of the conferral of Holy Orders upon me sixty years ago, I recognized the presence of a growth-giving dynamic between myself and the faithful with whom I was interacting. From the get-go, it was clear to me that the relationship between myself as priest, and the faithful whom I served, was to be a mutual exchange of grace and energy. The needs of the people required a response on my part that served to shape and form me as a work in progress into a more authentic instrument of priestly service." – Msgr. Edward Surwilo, Retired Priest

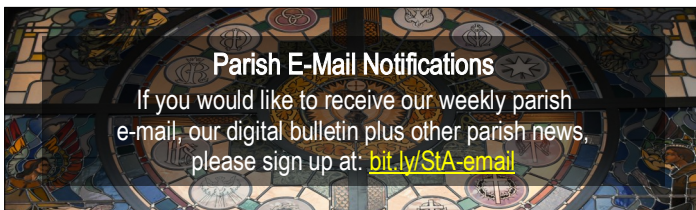

Thank you for your support of the Catherine Dennis Keefe Queen of the Clergy Residence through the Bishop's Appeal. Together as One in Christ, we can continue to support our Clergy in their retirement.

Thank you for your continued support and we wish you all a relaxing and enjoyable summer.

Dear Saint Aloysius Parish Community,

With a heart full of gratitude, I say goodbye as I conclude my summer assignment as a seminarian in this beautiful parish. It has been a truly enriching experience where I've learned so much for my future ministry. I ask the Lord to grant me a humble heart and a joyful spirit to serve wherever He may call me.

I am especially grateful to Monsignor Kinnally, Father Franklin, Father Bob, Father Flavian, and Deacon Bill for welcoming me so generously and making me feel at home. Your witness as priests and servants has deeply inspired me, and I hope God willing to soon join you as a brother in the ministry.

I also want to thank the entire parish staff. I have seen in you a sincere commitment, a living faith, and a true testimony of God's love in the ministries you lead and in the warm way you welcome every person who walks through the parish doors. May God continue to bless your work!

To all the parishioners: thank you for opening the doors of your homes, your lives, and your hearts to me. In every greeting after Mass, in each casual encounter, and in every shared prayer, I have felt the living presence of Christ among you.

Saint Aloysius is a vibrant, faith-filled, and fraternal community. You have a gift for making people from other places feel truly at home, and I know that comes from much prayer and the faithful work of you and your spiritual leaders. May the Lord continue to guide and bless you all.

I carry with me many faces, words, and moments that will continue to nourish my vocation. You have been a true witness of the Gospel to me. I look forward with joy and hope that many of you will be able to accompany me God willing at my diaconate ordination on December 6, 2025, and priestly ordination on June 13, 2026. It would be a great joy to see your faces on those special days.

Though I will be returning to St. Joseph's Seminary in Yonkers, NY, I won't be far away, and I hope to visit from time to time. You are all warmly invited to visit us as well, we will be six seminarians from the Diocese of Bridgeport there, and it would be a joy to welcome you.

Please know that you will remain in my prayers. May the Lord continue to bless you, and may Mary, our Mother, walk with you every step of the way. I also ask you to pray for me and for all vocations, that more young people may respond with joy to the Lord's call.

In Christ,
Seminarian Herley Méndez

Invite Our Blessed Mother into YOUR home

This beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius by members of Our Lady's Guild in 2005. It has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue, or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.
