Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Saint Pier Giorgio Michelangelo Frassati

The other Saint who was canonized last Sunday was Pier Giorgio Frassati. He was born in Turin, Italy on April 6, 1901. The son of an artist mother and a journalist-politician father, Pier Giorgio joined the Marian Sodality and the Apostleship of prayer, and at an early age received permission to receive Holy Communion daily (which was rare at that time). At the age of 17, he joined the St. Vincent de Paul Society and dedicated much of his spare time to serving the sick, the poor, orphans, and servicemen returning from World War I. He studied mining engineering at the local university so that he could "serve Christ better among the miners." While a student, Pier Giorgio joined the Catholic Student Foundation and Catholic Action. He was also very active in the People's Party which promoted the Church's social teaching based on the principles of Pope Leo XIII's encyclical Rerum Novarum.

Pier Giorgio was very generous to the poor, often using his bus fare for charity and then running home to be on time for meals. He often sacrificed his vacations at the family summer home outside Turin because, as he said, "if everybody leaves Turin, who will take care of the poor?"

This new Saint loved mountain climbing, and his numerous outings in the mountains with friends served as opportunities for his apostolic work. He led many of his friends to Mass, the reading of Scripture, and praying the rosary. His fondness for the letters of Saint Paul sparked his zeal for fraternal charity and his reading of the sermons of the Renaissance preacher and reformer Girolamo Savonarola impelled him to join the Third Order of St. Dominic.

Just prior to receiving his university degree, Pier Giorgio contracted poliomyelitis, which doctors later speculated he caught from the sick whom he tended. Neglecting his own health because his grandmother was dying, after six days of intense suffering Pier Giorgio died at the age of 24 on July 4, 1925. On the eve of his death, he scribbled a message to a friend to take the medication Pier Giorgio needed to a poor sick man he had been visiting. In 1981 his mortal remains were found completely intact and incorrupt upon their exhumation; following his beatification in 1990 they were transferred from the family plot in Pollone to the cathedral in Turin. Many pilgrims, especially the young, come to visit his tomb.

St. Pier Giorgio, help us to be zealous disciples and conquer the mountains of challenge that come our way. Amen.

Monsignor Rob

Mornings in the Education and Faith Center

When the day begins in the Education and Faith Center, our preschool children's voices will fill the halls. These little ones attending The Saint Aloysius Catholic Preschool will experience their earliest encounters with faith, community, and learning in classrooms created especially for them. Bright, cheerful, and secure, the spaces were designed with their safety, joy, and growth in mind.

To make sure our youngest parishioners are cared for in body as well as spirit, the preschool classrooms include radiant heating beneath the floors. Even on the coldest mornings, our little ones will be able to play, pray, and learn in warmth and comfort. Every detail has been thoughtfully considered so the space feels like a second home for children and a place where parents can know they are safe and nurtured.

The mornings will be filled with energy, wonder, and joy: children listening to Bible stories for the first time, learning simple prayers, singing songs of praise, and making friends who will grow up alongside them in the parish. Teachers and catechists will have the space and resources they need to create an environment where faith is introduced not as an idea, but as a way of life.

In this way, the Education and Faith Center will embody its mission from the very start of the day: to be a home where faith is planted, nurtured, and allowed to grow. For our preschoolers, these first mornings will be the foundation of a lifetime of faith.

YOUR SUPPORT IS STILL NEEDED - NOW!

Every gift matters. Every household needs to play a role.

MEN'S SPIRITUALITY GROUP

Our next meeting is Tuesday evening,
September 16th at 7pm in Stapleton Hall.

All men in the parish are welcome.

- Not Catholic?
- Interested in learning more about the Catholic faith?
- Perhaps you were baptized Catholic and have not received all the sacraments of initiation – Reconciliation, the Eucharist, Confirmation.

St Aloysius will begin a new journey in faith during the 3rd week of September to share the richness of the Catholic Church and our parish family with those who are not Catholic or baptized Catholics who desire to complete the sacraments of initiation. We invite you to learn what our Church teaches in an open and welcoming environment. These sessions are opportunities for you to ask those perplexing and difficult questions you may have about the church.

These sessions are open to people who are unbaptized, as well as those who are baptized Christians from Protestant backgrounds and want to learn about our Catholic faith.

Please contact Deacon Bill Santulli at 203-940-0711 or santulliwb@starcc.com if you have questions or would like further information.

Come Join the Journey with us!

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

St. A's Women's Bible Study 2025 - 2026

Meetings are Tuesdays from 9:30 a.m. - 11:45 a.m.

Beginning Sept. 30th in Stapleton Hall

Refreshments Included - All are invited!

Our Study this year is:

True Reformers: Saints of the Catholic Reformation

This study explores the saints, including St. Ignatius, St. Thomas More and St. Theresa of Avila, who led the Church's rebirth through the ashes of Renaissance decadence and the turbulence and confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation. We will discover how powerful - and beautiful - is the human heart's free response to God's generous grace.

Registration is required. We will be purchasing study materials in advance. True Reformers: Saints of the Catholic Reformation by Jerome K. Williams

Invite Our Blessed Mother into YOUR Home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. Twenty years ago, our beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione at (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.
