Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Keeping the Faith

When war, violence, anxiety, impatience, fear, and frustration take top billing, our faith is tested. St. Paul's letter to his friend Timothy was penned when Paul was in prison, exhausted from his work of spreading the Gospel. The fledgling Church was restless, Paul was imprisoned, and Jesus had not come back to make it all better. In this Sunday's second reading, Paul urges his friend to stay the course, to be encouraged and emboldened by what God has taught him through the life and words of Jesus:

But you, man of God, pursue righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Compete well for the faith.

Lay hold of eternal life, to which you were called when you made the noble confession in the presence of many witnesses.

I charge you before God, who gives life to all things, and before Christ Jesus, who gave testimony under Pontius Pilate for the noble confession, to keep the commandment without stain or reproach until the appearance of our Lord Jesus Christ that the blessed and only ruler will make manifest at the proper time,

the King of kings and Lord of lords, who alone has immortality, who dwells in unapproachable light, and whom no human being has seen or can see.

To him be honor and eternal power. Amen.

(1 Timothy 6:11-16)

As we navigate the events of the past few weeks – those of world and nation as well as those in our own families and our own hearts, Paul's urgent plea to be people of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness are a soothing balm. In a moment of history where it seems as if we are shouting more than talking, Paul's words are timely. When in our disappointment and sadness at the worst of what has happened to us, Paul reminds us that God gives life to all things and gives life forever. When we wonder to whom we shall go when feeling lost or abandoned, Paul makes it clear that it is the Lord Jesus Christ who lives forever, dwells in light and brings light to all darkness. He is the Lord, He is the One, He is the answer, He will raise us up, He will renew our faith in Him and in one another.

In Christ,

Monsignor Rob

THE BUILDING CORNER

Fulfilling our Sacred Mission

Evenings in the Education and Faith Center

The Education and Faith Center will be alive with activity mornings, afternoons, and evenings. This week we highlight the evening hours, when the building will truly shine — both figuratively and literally.

As the sun sets, the Center will remain filled with life. Parish ministries such as our youth group, small faith-sharing groups, and other gatherings will meet in dedicated spaces designed for energy and fellowship. Families and adults will also come together for programs, retreats, speaker series, and workshops that inspire spiritual renewal and deeper commitment to living the Gospel.

From the street, neighbors and visitors will see the building illuminated, its upstairs corner rooms glowing with activity. The sight of parish ministries at work will stand as a visible sign that Saint Aloysius is a parish alive every day of the week — not only on Sundays. The lights shining in the evening will reflect the life of faith being lived within, reminding all who pass by that this is a community rooted in prayer, service, and fellowship.

YOUR SUPPORT IS STILL NEEDED - NOW!

Every gift matters. Every household needs to play a role.

Your generosity helps fulfill our sacred mission whether you're making a first-time gift or increasing your support. As you prayerfully consider your family's sacrificial gift, please know that you may pay your pledge over three years providing you with greater flexibility while still making a tremendous impact. Please contact Maria Molloy at mmolloy@starcc.com if you would like to make a gift or join a tour of this wonderful facility or have any questions.
