Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Who Prays Better?

This Sunday's Gospel is the parable of the prayer of the Pharisee and the tax collector. The Pharisees were known to be very devout worshippers of God who were often found at prayer in the temple. Therefore, it would make sense to assume that in the story it will be the Pharisee who will pray "better." But the outcome is a bit of surprise because the tax collector, who, by virtue of his profession, was scorned by society, is the one whose prayer is genuine and humble. The issue here is each man's relationship with God. The Pharisee begins his prayer by thanking God that he is not like other people – not exactly the best start. The tax collector admits to his sinfulness and is grateful for the mercy of God.

Our reading of this parable might find us asking ourselves these questions: How do I speak with God? What is my prayer like? What do I ask of God? What do I say to God in my best moments and in my worst moments?

Prayer is that amazing opportunity for us to have a conversation with the One who is Creator, Redeemer, Advocate, and Sanctifier. If in our prayer we speak from the heart and admit that we rely on God for everything, we are being authentic, and God can surely work with that. If we speak the truth to God about our sin, our fears, our worries, our insecurities, and our joy, God will bless us with forgiveness, peace, confidence, and more joy. If we hold back, we are missing an opportunity to receive God's love spoken to us in His powerful silence. Pray like your life depends on it. Listen with the ear of your heart. Expect great things from God who loves to hear from you!

I'm praying for you.

Monsignor Rob

Come as you are— God is ready to welcome you with open arms.

THE BUILDING CORNER
Fulfilling our Sacred Mission

This is a beautiful autumn in Fairfield County and the vibrant colors of the trees are all around us. Just as the trees outside are putting on a magnificent display, a new and purposeful beauty is taking root on our Saint Aloysius Church campus. Our experts, Ronan, our landscape architect from Peter Gisolfi Associates, and Robert, our tree farmer from New York, have carefully selected a variety of trees for planting across our new campus.

Among the new additions will be Elms which are the same venerable species found on New Canaan's historic Elm Street. Other hearty and beautiful species will also be planted along the South Avenue side of the property, on the great lawn between the Church and the Education and Faith Center, and even within the parking lot. In front of the Saint Carlos Acutis Chapel, fiery red Maples will flank the entry. This gift of trees will share their brilliant beauty with all of New Canaan for generations to come.

YOUR SUPPORT IS STILL NEEDED - NOW!

Every gift matters. Every household needs to play a role. Your generosity helps fulfill our sacred mission whether you're making a first-time gift or increasing your support. As you prayerfully consider your family's sacrificial gift, please know that you may pay your pledge over three years providing you with greater flexibility while still making a tremendous impact. Please contact Maria Molloy at mmolloy@starcc.com if you would like to make a gift or join a tour of this wonderful facility or have any questions.

Our Married Couples Group gathered for our Wedding Feast at New Canaan, a social event rooted in the Wedding Feast at Cana. The couples enjoyed a bountiful appetizer buffet, wines with spiritual labels (suggested by Francos Wine Merchants). We were inspired by a witness talk by one of our married couples, Sarah and Tony Leopold in which they shared scripture, personal testimony and inspiring advice for incorporating Mary's words at the wedding feast, "Do whatever He tells you." The couples each went home with a blessed bottle of Prosecco to share on a special occasion. Watch for our future events!

LAST CHANCE TO BE A PART OF HISTORY!

National Catholic Youth Conference

November 20-23

In an era where the digital and spiritual life intersect, Pope Leo XIV is breaking new ground. For the first time, a pope will engage directly with about 15,000 young people at the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC). This will be his first-ever digital dialogue with young people in the United States. Pope Leo XIV will participate in a 45-minute real-time dialogue with young people gathered at Lucas Oil Stadium in Indianapolis. This historic moment will mark a powerful opportunity for young people to witness the Universal Church's care and concern for their voices, experiences, and hopes.

Join Chris Otis and our St. Aloysius contingent and other teens from across the diocese as we fly to NCYC for a powerful three-day experience of prayer, community, evangelization, catechesis, service, and empowerment for Catholic high school teens and this amazing encounter with the Pope!

The diocese is underwriting a large portion of the trip cost to keep the cost at $475. Please reach out to Chris Otis at youth@starcc.com or visit the link below for more information and registration, which closes October 30!

Supper and S'mores with Mary - Tuesday, October 28

Teens in grades 7-12 are invited for our supper, followed by a teen-friendly rosary and s'mores around the firepit in our newly redesigned Holy Spirit Garden (thanks to Eagle Scouts Gianmarco Barrato and Whit O'Reilly). Sign up at: <https://tinyurl.com/SSwithMary>

Our Carlo Project team attended a kick-off event with teens from around the diocese, where they spent time with international social media influencer and musician Fr. Rob Galea. They embarked on a mission to help use their voices on social media to evangelize and help the diocese create content to engage young people in their faith!

~ Parish News ~

This weekend (October 25 & 26) our Level 1 Confirmation Students will be asking for your financial donations after all Masses. The money collected will be used to purchase items for 1,000 stockings and helps our high school teen contingent travel to Kentucky.

As part of our traditional outreach, these stockings will be distributed to needy families by our teens and the Christian Appalachian Project. Often, this is the only gift the children receive. Your generosity will be greatly appreciated! If you miss donating in person this weekend at Mass, you may donate securely online at Youth Ministry Donations (click here) noting it is a donation for "Project 1,000".

We are also in need of a few $500 vehicle sponsors to cover the SUV's that we rent in Kentucky. Please contact Chris Otis at youth@starcc.com if you can help.

Our Lady's Guild

We invite all ladies of the parish to a very special event!

Guest Speaker: Priscilla Wanderley
Thursday, October 30th at 9:00am Mass and Rosary in Church
10:00am Brunch & Speaker in Stapleton Hall

Priscilla Wanderley, Project Coordinator at the Institute for Catholic Formation in the Diocese of Bridgeport, holds a concentration in Iconography. She has devoted her studies and ministry to exploring the rich spiritual and artistic traditions of sacred imagery, with a special focus on Marian iconography. In her presentation, Walking with the Blessed Mother from the Incarnation to the Cenacle, Priscilla invites participants on a journey through Scripture and sacred art, contemplating Mary's life from the moment of the Incarnation to her steadfast presence in the Upper Room at Pentecost. Drawing on theological insight and the profound symbolism of icons, she offers a prayerful encounter with the Mother of God that inspires a deeper love for Christ and His Church.

Mass of Remembrance 2025

This year's Mass of Remembrance will be held on All Souls' Day -
Next Sunday, November 2nd at 11:30 am

We will be reading names of all those parishioners who passed away between 11/3/2024 and today.

Additionally, as part of this year's Mass, the St. Aloysius Choir will be offering a beautiful presentation of the Requiem, by Gabriel Fauré, accompanied by Harp, organ and violin.

If you would like to add the name of a family member or friend who passed away this last year but might not be a parishioner, please email their name to John Palma at jpalma@starcc.com.

Music Notes for 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 26th, 2025 Dr. John Michniewicz

The readings for the 30th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year C) emphasize the importance of humble prayer over pride, highlighted by the Gospel parable of the tax collector and the Pharisee.

- The opening hymn, "Praise My Soul, the King of Heaven," reflects the theme of God's grace and mercy, drawing connections to the lectionary Psalm 34.
- At the 11:30 AM Mass, the choir will sing "Draw Us In the Spirit's Tether" at the Presentation, connecting to the themes of humility and community prayer found in the readings.
- The Communion Meditation features the anthem Anima Christi (Soul of Christ), a 14th-century Latin prayer set to music by Fr. Marco Frisina, which is a humble plea for God's mercy and salvation.
- The 10:00 AM Family Mass features the spiritual "Guide My Feet" at the Offertory, which aligns with St. Paul's message in the second reading about "finishing the race."
- At the Saturday and early Sunday Masses, the Communion meditation is "Wonderful, Merciful Savior," a contemporary song that serves as a humble prayer for grace and mercy.

Women's Bible Study 2025-26

Tuesdays from 9:30 - 11:45 a.m. in Stapleton Hall
Refreshments Included - All are invited!

Our Study this year is:

True Reformers: Saints of the Catholic Reformation

This study explores the saints, including St. Ignatius, St. Thomas More and St. Theresa of Avila, who led the Church's rebirth through the ashes of Renaissance decadence and the turbulence and confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation. We will discover how powerful - and beautiful - is the human heart's free response to God's generous grace.

Registration is required so we can purchase the book for you.
