Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Getting Ready for the End

As we get closer to the end of the liturgical year, our Sunday readings turn to the end times. The scenes are rife with natural disasters and pervasive turmoil; but the faithful need not fear according to Jesus in the Gospel of Luke (21:19):

*You will be hated by all because of my name,
but not a hair on your head will be destroyed.
By your perseverance you will secure your lives.*

Our life together as a parish family is characterized by Gospel living, and as we get to the end of the liturgical and calendar years, I want to take a few sentences to speak of the ways we can witness the Gospel as we prepare for Christmas and accompany one another in the year ahead.

The holidays are rich with celebrations and time with friends and family, but for some those days are filled with challenge. We have an opportunity to help the poor through our Thanksgiving food drive, the Christmas Stars, and the New Canaan Giving Box that assists our friends in town to have a merrier Christmas than they thought they would have.

If you are struggling and would like someone to walk with you through a difficult time, please reach out to our Stephen Ministry. This weekend Michael Crane from Stephen Ministry will speak about this ministry of accompaniment.

More than a few parishioners have said there is a need for religious Christmas and other greeting cards, so I invited Sister Rose Marie from the Sisters of Notre Dame to offer her beautiful cards this weekend at all the Masses. All sales help fund the missionary work of the sisters.

I'm truly looking forward to our annual Advent-Christmas concert on December 14. This year's theme is "Hope". Mark your calendars now and invite friends and family to join you at 2pm on that Sunday afternoon. Our choirs and orchestra always inspire!

We put the Christmas schedule of Masses on the website a few days ago. But before you get to Christmas Mass, receive the gifts of forgiveness, mercy, and grace at the Sacrament of Reconciliation. In addition to the usual Saturday afternoon confessions, pray with us at one of the many Holy Hours with Confession in December.

The "end times" reminder is a spiritual wake-up call to prepare us for that day when the Lord (the "sun of justice" according to this Sunday's first reading) will return to gather us to himself. If we spend today living as Jesus would have us live, any fear of what is to come will be replaced by joyful anticipation. I pray that our parish family will spend the weeks ahead walking with one another giving thanks for "what God has ready for those who love Him."

Yours in Christ,
Monsignor Rob

Matching Challenge – Increase Your Impact 2:1!

We are excited to share that members of the parish community are coming forward to support our Matching Donor Challenge with $207,323 in gifts and 31 first-time pledges! We are so very grateful to all those who are getting us closer to our goal!

Imagine that soon our campus will be filled with St. Aloysius Catholic Preschool children in the mornings, then seamlessly transformed to welcome over 800 Religious Formation students in the afternoons. With ministries meeting in the evenings our parishioners, from the youngest to the oldest, will have a dedicated and engaging environment for spiritual growth. Every gift matters and every household counts. Whether it is your family's first gift, an increase to a pledge already made, or a new commitment paid over three years, your participation will help bring this project across the finish line. A reminder on how it works:

- If our parish raises $500,000 in new gifts and pledges by the end of December...
- AND at least 50 new pledges are received from first-time campaign contributors...
- ...then the $1 million Challenge Fund goal will be met, bringing our total impact to $1.5 million!

We continue to ask every family to prayerfully consider how you can be part of this challenge.

Please contact Maria Molloy at if you would like to make a gift, join a tour of this wonderful facility, or have any questions.

BRIDGEPORT

November 2, 2025
Feast of All Souls

Dear Friends in Christ,

In every age of the Church, the Lord has provided faithful shepherds—men who have offered their lives so that others might encounter Christ in the sacraments. Over the decades, our priests have baptized our children, witnessed our marriages, comforted us in times of grief, and nourished us with the Eucharist.

Our parish priests have been true spiritual fathers, and as they age, it is our duty to care for them with the same generosity they have shown us. To meet this responsibility, our diocese has established the St. John Vianney Trust, an independent non-profit with the sole mission of caring for our senior and infirm priests in the Diocese of Bridgeport.

It is important to recognize that retirement does not end a priest's ministry. Senior priests continue to celebrate Mass, hear confessions, and offer pastoral guidance wherever they are needed. Our diocese has more than 70 priests past retirement age, a number that is projected surpass 100 priests within 15 years.

Despite dramatically rising healthcare costs, our diocese is committed to providing care for our older priests, but we need more financial resources to do so. Your generosity will ensure that these faithful men, many of whom serve well into their eighties, can continue to minister and live their remaining years with dignity

Scripture reminds us to “honor your father and mother” (Ex 20:12), and that “kindness to a father will not be forgotten” (Sir 3:14). This principle certainly applies to our earthly fathers, but it is equally true of our spiritual fathers—our parish priests. And so I invite you to give generously to the Faith of Our Fathers campaign.

Finally, please join me in praying for our beloved priests who have passed away, as well as those who are in the autumn of life. As their strength wanes, our support must grow stronger.

With sincere gratitude,

Most Reverend Frank J. Caggiano
Bishop of Bridgeport
