Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Thanksgiving, Eucharist, and Christ the King

This weekend I offer a few words about Thanksgiving, the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, and the relationship of the two events to the Eucharist. The nation's observance of Thanksgiving provides an opportunity to reflect on the blessings God has given us. As the newcomers to America gave thanks for the new-found religious freedom, we pause from our labors to express our gratitude for what we have received from God.

The word "Eucharist" has its roots in Greek and it means "thanksgiving." It is the meal where we are drawn into the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus. Around the table of the Eucharist, we are recalling – in fact re-living – Jesus' great sacrifice, and that is cause for giving thanks. It is at the Eucharist where our sins are forgiven, the gates of Heaven are opened and we are once again in awe of God's great love for us – that He would walk among us, heal, comfort, and provide everlasting life. When we contemplate Christ as "King of the Universe," we turn our hearts not to a king of pomp and circumstance, but to a humble servant who died like criminals died at the time. To celebrate Christ as "king" is to be thankful that God cared enough about us that he would humble Himself, pour out His life for our sake, and lovingly reign over our blessed lives.

When we gather around our Thanksgiving tables this week, we should make room at the table for Christ, allowing him to rule over the festivities of that day (and the challenges and joys of every day) and acknowledge that the blessings for which we are grateful come from Him.

At this time of giving thanks, I am grateful for what God is doing in our blessed parish, and grateful too for all of you who walk with Christ and one another each day. Your prayers, your time, and your gifts build up the body of Christ and help us to gather with joy and hope at the Eucharist and move toward the Heavenly Banquet. Thank you for everything.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Monsignor Rob

The Parish Offices will be closed starting Wednesday, November 26th and will reopen on Monday, December 1st.

As always, a priest will be available every day and night in case of emergencies.

Matching Donor Challenge Update

We are making great progress with our Matching Donor Challenge. We are excited to share that the parish community has responded and is coming forward with generous support. We have secured $304,494 in gifts and 42 first-time pledges! We are deeply grateful to the many families who have made a gift or increased their commitment.

A reminder of how it works:

- If our parish raises $500,000 in new gifts and pledges by the end of December...
- AND at least 50 new pledges are received from first-time campaign contributors...
- ...then the $1 million Challenge Fund goal will be met, bringing our total impact to $1.5 million!

The Education and Faith Center is designed to be a true parish home—a place where our youngest children will begin their faith journey, where nearly 800 students in our Religious Education program will gather each week, and where our ministries will have the spaces they need to flourish. This building will touch every corner of parish life.

Please contact Maria Molloy at if you would like to make a gift, join a tour of this wonderful facility, or have any questions. Click Here to Donate

Matching Challenge Summary - As of 11.17.25

Fundraising Goal	$500,000
Total Pledged	$304,494	(61% of goal)
First-Time Donor Goal	50
First-Time Donors	42	(84% of goal)

DID YOU KNOW? You can make Qualified Charitable Distributions (QCDs) from your IRA's Required Minimum Distributions—up to $108,000 per person or $216,000 per couple each year. These gifts don't count as income. Check with your financial advisor to see if this option is right for you.

Confirmation

Over 200 were in attendance at our amazing Confirmation Retreat last weekend. Colleen Kelly Rayner shared the importance of falling in Love with Jesus and then doing something with that love to help others. The students had fun learning about building community and then prayed together during Adoration.

Music Notes - The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe Dr. John Michniewicz

- Christ the King Sunday, established by Pius XI in 1925 and moved to the final Sunday of the liturgical year by Paul VI, proclaims Christ's universal sovereignty.
- The readings highlight Christ's kingship through David's foreshadowing (2 Sam 5:1-3), his dominion (Col 1:12-20), and his reign from the cross (Lk 23:35-43).
- The entrance hymn, "Jesus Shall Reign" (W-569), celebrates Christ's everlasting rule.
- Communion music echoes the theme "Worthy is the Lamb," including "I Will Exalt My God and King" (Ps 145) and Dan Forrest's "To the Lamb on the Throne." The closing hymn, "To Jesus Christ Our Sovereign King" (W-570), affirms Christ's victory and lordship.
