Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Here I am, Lord

This Sunday's psalm refrain ("Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will") challenges us to think and pray about how we live out our own discipleship. A new year brings an opportunity to make resolutions for better living. But before we make any big plans, we should pray that God's plans for us are honored by our intentional listening, our docility, and our gracious reception of God's love. Prayer that leads us to silence allows God to do the talking and gives us a chance to know what to speak. Trusting that God knows better than we do about where we should be going brings us to places of peace and consolation that we didn't know existed. Admitting that God looks kindly upon us and loves us through every moment gives us the courage and confidence that will help us (as St. Theresa of Calcutta has said) to do the "smallest of things with great love."

Coming before God in prayer and in living and declaring "Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will" says that we desire to be truly free to be the hands and feet of God in a world that needs some help.

Monsignor Rob

We invite you to join us for a special
Mass of Thanksgiving celebrating the 90th birthday and lifelong ministry of our beloved shepherd,
Reverend Robert Uzzilio.
This Sunday, January 18th
11:30 am Mass
A light reception will follow in the narthex.

Parish Men's Book Discussion
Jan. 26 at 7:45 p.m. - Maple St. Dining Room

Look Out Below! A Story of the Airborne by a Paratrooper Padre (Second Edition 2023)

The first St. Aloysius Parish Men's Book Discussion will be a discussion of "Look Out Below." A veteran of the Second World War and the Korean War, Francis L. Sampson was a real-life hero whose exploits inspired one of the most famous war films of all time, Saving Private Ryan. Throughout it all, Sampson offered a valuable Christian witness in the darkest of times and the most difficult of circumstances.

The book is available at a discount at Elm Street Books (behind the counter) and through Amazon.

For more information or to let me know you will be coming, contact Kevin Leitão at 203-829-9408 or kevinleitao@mac.com. (If there is inclement weather, we may have a Zoom session instead.)

Music Notes for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time Dr. John Michniewicz

- The readings for the Second Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year A) focus on God's call to salvation, highlighting the "Suffering Servant" (Isaiah 49) as a light to the nations and Jesus as the "Lamb of God" (John 1).
- The Entrance Hymn, "The Church's One Foundation," and the Presentation Hymn, "In Christ There Is No East or West," both reflect the unity of believers and the universal reach of Christ's salvation.
- The choir at the 11:30 Mass will perform "I Waited for the Lord" from Mendelssohn's Lobengesang, which is based on Psalm 40, reinforcing themes of trust and God's faithfulness.
- The Communion Meditation, "Speak, Lord" by Tom Trenney, emphasizes listening to God's word and actively engaging in ministry to spread the Gospel and work for justice.
- The final hymn, "Lord, You Give the Great Commission," echoes the call to service and ministry.
- The music at this Sunday's 11:30 Mass of Thanksgiving fittingly celebrates the lifelong ministry, outreach and 90th birthday of Fr. Robert Uzzilio!

A Faithful Legacy, A Lasting Blessing

When you include St. Aloysius Church in your will, trust or estate planning, you're doing more than giving a gift—you're sharing your faith with generations to come. Your legacy can help nurture the spiritual lives of families, support parish ministries, youth ministries and keep Christ at the center of our community.

Planned giving is also a blessing for you. It offers peace of mind, reflects your deepest values, and may provide tax advantages for you and your loved ones.

Speak with your estate planning attorney or financial advisor—and prayerfully consider how your legacy can continue God's work here in New Canaan.
