Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Road to Emmaus

Did you ever feel like you were heading in the wrong direction? I'm not talking about taking the wrong road when you decide to ditch your GPS and rely on that inner sense of direction you thought you had. I'm referring to that feeling of fear that an idea, a choice, or a relationship was not going where you thought it would go. The sense of impending failure sparks self-doubt and hopelessness. The remedy for this kind of flawed navigation is to re-set, re-group, and check-in with the ones who can show us the better way – the people we love and in whom we have faith, the ones who know us better than we know ourselves. They are the ones who guide us by truth to where we are meant to be.

The two on the road to Emmaus (which translates to “Nowhere”) are feeling lost because they believe that Jesus had not risen from the dead. They are walking away from Jerusalem disappointed and forlorn because they assumed that the promise of Resurrection was broken. Slowly they come to realize that the stranger who begins to walk with them is the Risen Lord. They begin to understand that he is the one promised in Scripture, they are drawn to his story and don't want him to leave. But it is in the breaking of the bread that they finally recognize that it is Jesus. Their hearts are fired up, and they proclaim the Risen Lord! They are back on track and filled with the joy that comes from an encounter with Christ.

We need Christ to walk with us as we face misdirected thoughts and actions. We need Christ to listen as we pray for the peace that only He can give to the world. We need Christ to calm the heat of hurtful rhetoric that is directed toward our Holy Father and the Church. We need Christ to show us how to live the Gospel in love and in truth.

Lord, walk with us each day. Help us to recognize you in word, in sacrament, and in one another. We know you are the way, the truth, and the life. Show us the way – every day.

Amen.

Monsignor Rob

Music Notes for the Third Sunday of Easter Dr. John Michniewicz

The music for the Third Sunday of Easter centers on the "Road to Emmaus" narrative from Luke 24, where the Risen Lord is recognized in the "Breaking of the Bread." This scripture serves as a foundational model for Christian liturgy, reflecting a two-fold structure of the Liturgy of the Word and the Sacrament.

The entrance hymn, "At The Lamb's High Feast We Sing," connects the Hebrew Passover to the Resurrection. Thought to be written by St. Ambrose (c. 339–397), Bishop of Milan and the "Father of Church Hymnody," it highlights themes of the sacramental banquet and victory over death.

The presentation hymn, "As We Gather at Your Table," frames the Eucharist as a source of strength for the church's mission, depicting Christ's victory as "Love triumphant" and calling believers to share peace and compassion in the world.

At the 11:30 Mass, the choir will perform K. Lee Scott's "Joy to the Heart," which emphasizes the disciples' dawning recognition of Christ. Egil Hovland's "Stay with Us," serves as the communion meditation. The text quotes both the disciples' plea with the ancient Greek evening hymn Phos Hilaron to portray Christ as the "world's true light."

Sunday's final hymn: "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," serves as a powerful call to discipleship and a triumphant celebration of Jesus' resurrection.

Every week our Church is filled with your friends, neighbors and fellow business owners. They are potential and current customers who actively visit businesses that support our Parish. If you are interested in placing an ad, or want more information, please contact John Palma at 203-652-1140 or JPalma@starcc.com.
