Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Trinity and Unity

Nearly every preacher approaches the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity with some trepidation, and I'm one of them. Lately I've come to a more meaningful embrace of the Father, Son, and Spirit, so permit me to share some of what I've come to understand. The teaching of the Trinity has its share of complexities: "one God, three Persons," an "everlasting unity," and so forth. The truth defies logic, but the beauty of it paints the story of our Christian lives: to know God as Father, Son, and Spirit is to live in the landscape of an undying and pervasive love that is given to us by The Three every day. To put it another way, imagine having someone in your life who loved you from the very beginning, showed you how to live life abundantly, and walked beside you forever through every joy and challenge. That's God as a Trinity, and that's what John's Gospel proclaims: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." The Creator sent the Redeemer who remains with us as Advocate – and they are one. Only God could keep us fully alive and feeling loved in such a splendid way.

The unity of the Trinity is paramount to our understanding of the relationship of The Three. Together, as One, the Trinity provides the gifts -- and even the fire in our soul -- that we need to love God, follow His commandments, and love one another. This gift of unity speaks to me when unity in families, in the Church, and in our country, is compromised. Sometimes words and actions reflect division more than a splendid unity. Saint Paul calls us to right living in today's second reading: "Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss." Jesus has taught us over and over how to treat one another: "love one another as I have loved you." That was demonstrated in parables like the Good Samaritan, in washing the feet of the disciples, in embracing the leper, in healing, in giving us the gift of peace. Jesus also taught us how to pray, and I always believe that's the best place to start. Our prayers will make a powerful difference, so let's pray for what we need: maybe it's healing, or understanding, or peace. No matter what it is, the Trinity will hear us, heal us, understand us, and bring us peace.

May the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you.

Monsignor Rob

2026 Bishop's Appeal

In a world full of questions, Catholics are called to know their faith, live it deeply, and share it with clarity, confidence, and charity. That's why the Diocese of Bridgeport is excited for the work of Suan Sonna, Director of Apologetics, whose mission is to:

- ✦ Teach what we believe, why we believe it, and how to share it with grace
- ✦ Create opportunities to encounter Christ, the One Who is Truth
- ✦ Accompany people through their questions with presence and care

Suan's vision of apologetics goes beyond "defending the faith." It's about intellectual formation rooted in F.I.R.E. — Fidelity, Integrity, Rigor, and Empathy, helping Catholics grow closer to Christ and confidently engage today's culture.

Honoring the Spiritual
Legacy of Our Retired
Diocesan Priests

The St. John Vianney Trust

Faced with the rising number of retired priests, as well as skyrocketing medical costs, Bishop Caggiano established the St. John Vianney Trust as a dedicated 501(c)(3) with the mission of supporting retired priests of the Diocese of Bridgeport.

This special fund supplements the priests' pension, covering the costs of rising living expenses. Our goal is to raise $2.5 million annually within the next five years to meet these growing needs. The Diocese of Bridgeport currently has 70 retired clergy, a number that is projected to rise to well over 100 priests in the next 15 years. As life expectancy improves and medical costs rise, our obligation to provide excellent care remains.

Support our retired priests.

Music Notes for Trinity Sunday Dr. John Michniewicz

May 31st is titled The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity, or as it is called, Trinity Sunday. In the Trinity, one God exists as three distinct persons: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The readings show the characteristics of God that Christians have come to know: the God who creates, the God who is praised, the God of compassion who blesses and saves, and the God who sends and accompanies.

Sunday's Entrance Hymn, Holy, Holy, Holy was written by the 19th century Anglican bishop Reginald Heber specifically for Trinity Sunday. The hymn draws on Isaiah 6 and Revelation 4, and is paired with the hymn tune NICAIA, named in honor of the Council of Nicaea's defense of Trinitarian doctrine.

Sunday's Presentation Hymn, This Day God Gives Me, is adapted from the 5th-century prayer traditionally attributed to St. Patrick, known as St. Patrick's Breastplate, calling upon the Trinity for strength. At the 11:30 Mass, the choir will sing Mark Schweizer's anthem Undivided Mystery. Both of these selections reflect the Celtic and ancient Church's sense of the Trinity as an enveloping, protective, and paradoxical unity of Three in One.

The communion hymn Eat This Bread comes from the Taizé Community in France, a singable and meditative eucharistic hymn that has become well known throughout the world. At the 11:30 Mass the choir will sing a setting of the Ave Maria by R. Douglas Helvering. The Ave Maria itself can be seen as Trinitarian: the Father's gift of the Son, made present through the Spirit, entered history through Mary's "yes."

Sunday's Final Hymn, Now Thank We All Our God, was written by German pastor Martin Rinkart during the devastating Thirty Years' War. It is a joyful hymn of praise and thanksgiving for God's compassion and salvation. Now Thank We All Our God concludes with a triumphant doxology of praise to the Trinity.
