Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Sacred Memory: 25 Years Later

On Friday, September 11 we will mark 25 years since the attacks that changed everything. That day of fear and tragedy touched our community directly and while healing has taken place, many still grieve. We will gather on September 11 to pray for family and friends who lost their lives, for all who are grieving, and for a true and lasting peace in our world. Special Masses will be held at 5:30 pm and 7:00 pm. I hope you can join us to honor the sacred memory of our brothers and sisters with our prayers for healing and peace.

St. Aloysius Preschool is Open!

The first students of St. Aloysius Preschool walked through the doors of our brand new Education and Faith Center on September 1. Moms, dads, and even some grandparents were on hand to create precious first-day-of-school memories. There were lots of smiles (and just a few tears) on those first days when our parish opened a joyful new chapter!

Help Us to Meet our Goal for the Annual Bishop's Appeal

We are a little over $200,000 away from making our goal for the Annual Bishop's Appeal. We have been so generous to our parish building campaign, but we can't forge the important and life-giving services that our diocese provides to so many in Fairfield County. Please consider a gift. Make your gift payable to "Annual Bishop's Appeal". To make it easy to give, you can drop your check in the offertory basket or bring it/mail it to the parish office. We will make sure it gets to the appeal office. Thank you.

Join me in celebrating the dedication of our new building on September 16, beginning with Mass at 5:30 pm. Until then, you are in my prayers, and I am truly grateful for your faithfulness and care for one another.

In Christ, Yours in Christ,

Msr. Rob

Accompanying One Another in Hope

At St. Aloysius Parish in New Canaan, a monthly spiritual support group offers prayerful encouragement to those living with illness and to caregivers walking alongside them. Founded by parishioner Pat Calanca in collaboration with

Fr. David Roman, Peace in the Storm provides a welcoming space where participants reflect on faith, share experiences, and draw strength from one another in Christ. Guided by the Peace in the Storm resource, this lay-led ministry demonstrates how simple acts of presence, prayer, and listening can become powerful signs of God's love. Mentorship and training are available and a willingness to accompany others with compassion and faith.

Support from the Bishop's Appeal allows ministries like this to continue reaching those in need, strengthening parish life, and bringing comfort to hearts facing difficult moments.

Please Help St. Aloysius Reach our Goal!

Bishop's Appeal Goal: $694,300

Total Pledged as of 8/28/26: $381,043 (55%)

ARE YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

The Order of Christian Initiation of Adults, OCIA, is an awakening to Christ and a seeking out of the Catholic Church that occurs in a variety of ways. The first step for some is a sense that "something is missing", that there is more to life than what they now have. For many others, the journey begins because of a relationship with a Catholic – a close friend or spouse. Some were baptized Catholic but did not receive any other sacraments. Still, others are drawn by seeing the example of a Catholic life well lived.

The OCIA process is a series of carefully planned stages, marked by liturgical rites, in which those who are interested in becoming full Catholics join us in a continuing and deepening conversion into faith and discipleship. It takes each person's spiritual needs into account. At the Easter Vigil Mass, candidates will receive those sacraments of initiation that they need – Baptism, the Eucharist, and Confirmation.

In mid-September, our parish will begin weekly OCIA sessions in an open and welcoming environment. These gatherings are open to unbaptized people as well as baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds.

Please get in touch with Deacon Bill Santulli at 203-940-0711 or santulliwb@starcc.com if you have questions or would like further information.

Music Notes for 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Dr. John Michniewicz

Sunday's readings remind us that God's love binds a community together. From Ezekiel's loving care and Paul's call to love our neighbor to Jesus' teaching on reconciliation, the readings emphasize honesty, forgiveness, and unity. Falling on Labor Day weekend, they also invite us to reflect on our shared work in building God's Kingdom.

The Entrance Hymn, Joyful, Joyful, We Adore You (No. 611), pairs Henry van Dyke's text with Beethoven's Ode to Joy. Its call to "love each other" echoes the day's readings.

The Presentation Hymn, Help Us Accept Each Other (No. 818), reflects the balance of truth and love found in the Gospel.

The Communion Hymn, Where True Love and Charity Are Found (Ubi Caritas, No. 694), echoes Christ's promise that where two or three gather in his name, he is present.

The Communion Meditation, For Everyone Born, calls for dignity, voice, and belonging for all, connecting with the Gospel's concern for community.

The Closing Hymn, In Christ There Is No East or West (No. 824), celebrates the unity of all people in Christ. For more info., click on the following link:
