Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Our Lady of the Rosary

The Feast of the Most Holy Rosary is October 7, but Bishop Caggiano has asked that we celebrate that special feast of our Blessed Mother this coming weekend at all the Sunday Masses. The readings will be those of the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, but the prayers of the Mass will be taken from those proper to the Blessed Virgin Mary. The reason for celebrating the Blessed Virgin Mary on this first Sunday of October is turn our hearts and minds to the important role of Mary in the history of salvation. Her “yes” to being the Mother of the Savior, her quiet presence throughout the earthly ministry of her son, her vigil at the foot of the Cross, and her reception of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost in the room with disciples – all of those moments teach us to be witnesses with Mary to all that God has accomplished through his son Jesus.

The Feast of the Holy Rosary began as the Feast of Our Lady Victory which was instituted by Pope Saint Pius V in thanksgiving for victory at the battle of Lepanto on October 7, 1571. Pope Gregory XIII changed the name of the feast and Pope Pius X locked in the date of October 7. Today the Church designates October as the month of the Holy Rosary.

The Rosary prayer draws us into the life of Jesus and Mary and inspires us to model their obedience to God’s will. The joyful, glorious, sorrowful, and luminous mysteries remind us of how much God desires us to be more like Jesus and his mother. The repetition of the “Hail Mary” prayer offers us a meditation framed by the angel Gabriel’s words to Mary and asks her to pray for us now and at the time of our last breath. The “Our Father”, the prayer taught to us by Jesus, speaks of our desire that God’s will be done and echoes Mary’s submission to that will.

If you do not pray the Rosary with any regularity, I invite you to begin that practice. You will know Jesus and Mary better, you will find peace in the storms of life, you will experience consolation having meditated on the mysteries that have changed lives.

Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us.

Msr. Rob

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY

There is an old saying that our hands are God's hands. By praying for the person who will receive the shawl, we enter into a sacred journey of knitting (or crocheting) with the Holy One and our hands become instruments of God's love. People who wear prayer shawls have said they feel a contentment and peace they have never felt before. If you know someone who has a particular concern or need that words cannot fill, you may request a shawl by calling Sue at 203-940-0278.

Music Notes for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time Dr. John Michniewicz, Director of Music

The readings for the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time again revolve around the imagery of the vineyard, reflected in a song by the prophet Isaiah and a parable told by Jesus himself. In Isaiah, the vineyard, lovingly tended, yields only wild grapes. Isaiah explains that the vineyard is Israel and that the fruit God longed for was justice and right living. Isaiah's message is written to wake those who hear it, encouraging them to follow God's way. In Psalm 80, God is asked to forgive and restore the people and let God's face shine upon them, so that they may be saved. In Philippians, Paul describes the good fruit that God desires: a life free of anxiety, grounded in prayer and thanksgiving, and attentive to whatever is true, just, and lovely. In the Gospel, Jesus recounts the Parable of the Tenants. The tenants, in their greed, reject the owner's son, but the rejected stone becomes the cornerstone. Jesus explains the meaning of the parable by telling the religious leaders that the kingdom of God will be "given to a people that will produce its fruit." Sunday, October 4 is also the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi, whose love for all of God's creation echoes the image of the vineyard and the harvest God seeks.

The Entrance hymn, All Creatures of Our God and King (Worship Hymnal No. 607), is William H. Draper's paraphrase of St. Francis's Cantic of the Sun. In it, all creation is called to give God glory. At the 11:30 Mass, the choir sings The Tree of Life by K. Lee Scott as the Presentation anthem, a text by Király Imre von Pécselyi in a paraphrase by Erik Routley. The tree in God's garden, choked by thorns and human greed, still lives, and offers healing, strength, and pardon to all peoples. At the other Masses, the Presentation hymn is Lord of All Hopefulness (Worship Hymnal No. 686), a prayer for Christ's presence through every part of the day, including the day's labor.

At the 11:30 Mass, the choir's Communion Meditation is the Cantic of Brother Sun by Jim Scott and Paul Winter, from Missa Gaia. Written for the annual Feast of St. Francis at the Cathedral of St. John the Divine, the Cantic sets Francis's praise of God through all creation. The Final hymn, Rejoice, the Lord Is King! by Charles Wesley (Worship Hymnal No. 564), takes its refrain, "Rejoice; again I say, rejoice!", from Philippians 4:4, the verse right before Sunday's Second Reading. It reflects Jesus' words that the kingdom of God will be "given to a people that will produce its fruit." It also gives a reminder that the owner of the vineyard will return, seeking good fruit.
