Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

The Emmaus Retreat and "The One"

I won't be at Masses in the church this weekend because I will be with our teens and adults participating in the Fall Emmaus Retreat. The three days provide opportunities for the 36 teen "candidates" to encounter Christ in prayer, witness talks, Mass, the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and fellowship. We have been preparing for the Emmaus retreat for months, and each part of the weekend is carefully and prayerfully created by the many teen and adult team members who serve the candidates and facilitate a spirit of discovering Christ's love for them and His challenge to live a life of truth rooted in the joy of the Gospel. We use the Emmaus story from the 24th chapter of St. Luke's Gospel as a framework for the retreat. You will remember that in that Gospel passage, two are walking away from Jerusalem toward Emmaus (meaning "nowhere"). They had not heard the good news of the Resurrection and were despondent that Jesus' promise to rise on the third day had not been kept. Thus they are walking away from Jerusalem where the drama of Christ's arrest, trial, and agony took place and are heading "nowhere" with their hopes dashed. It is not until they discover that the stranger who joins them on their way is Jesus Himself who opens the Scriptures" to them, telling them that the promised Messiah of Scripture is Jesus. True recognition comes when Jesus breaks bread with his travelling companions. It was then that their "hearts were burning" – with love and joy and hope.

Three years ago our Bishop Caggiano launched "The One," a story of renewal that is rooted in a meaningful encounter with Christ like the one described in the Emmaus passage. Desiring to awaken the Church from our malaise, Bishop Frank encourages all of us to accompany one another – maybe even one-at-a-time – to a deeper relationship with Christ by learning who He is and encountering Him in smaller settings where we spend time contemplating Christ in the truth, beauty, and goodness of the Church.

I am deeply grateful for the leadership of Emmaus 89 and the many teens and adults who will walk with our teen candidates and make it easy for them to make new friends, and get to know their most loving and loyal friend – Jesus. Discovering and nurturing such a friendship is exactly what is needed to navigate a complicated world. Finding Christ, the Lord of Life is essential for living a good life and having plenty of practice for Heaven.

May I ask you to pray for all of us who are participating in Emmaus 89 this weekend. May I ask you to pray also for our bishop as he leads the Church of the Diocese of Bridgeport in a renewal that will fire us up and cool our restlessness with a commitment to live as Christ would have us live every day.

Thank you for your faithfulness and love. May Christ bless you abundantly.

Msgn. Rob

Online Giving for the week:	4,985
TOTAL OFFERTORY:	$21,509
LAST YEAR:	$27,001
Second Collection - Seminarians	$8,737

Second Collection next weekend will be for World Mission Sunday

This year marks the 100th anniversary of World Mission Sunday, established by Pope Pius XI in 1926. It is a special opportunity to renew our missionary spirit and support the Church's work around the world. Our second collection helps Pope Leo XIV support missionary dioceses and territories, bringing the Gospel to places where the Church is young, poor, persecuted, or just beginning to grow.

2026 Bishop's Appeal

Walking Together in Faith through Accompaniment

Jesus walked with His disciples, meeting them in their struggles and leading them toward truth. Today, the Church continues this mission through accompaniment, walking alongside one another in faith so that all may encounter Christ. As Catholics, accompaniment calls us to build meaningful relationships rooted in patience, mercy, service, and authentic love. Through the Church, the Sacraments, and our personal witness, we help others grow in holiness and deepen their communion with God.

Across the Diocese of Bridgeport, many experience loneliness or spiritual disconnection. Through The One, the Diocese responds by offering pastoral accompaniment and home visits through Pastoral Companions, and one-on-one spiritual friendships through Walk With One.

The Bishop's Appeal supports these ministries and makes this work possible as we continue growing One in Christ.

Music Notes for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time Dr. John Michniewicz, Director of Music

The readings for the 28th Sunday in Ordinary Time start with the image of a fine banquet that the Lord is preparing “for all peoples.” It is notable that all are welcome and all are invited to this wonderful feast. Isaiah describes a feast of rich food and choice wines, where God destroys death forever and wipes away every tear. Psalm 23 shows the Lord preparing a table and welcoming the Psalmist to dwell in his house for years to come. Paul assures the Philippians that God “will fully supply whatever you need.” And the Gospel, Matthew’s Parable of the Wedding Feast, shows the king sending his servants out to invite whomever they find, while making clear that the invitation calls for a faithful response.

Sunday’s Prelude at the 11:30 Mass is I Sat Down Under His Shadow (Edward Bairstow), whose Song of Songs text describes being brought into “the banqueting house.” The Entrance Hymn is All Are Welcome (Marty Haugen), which describes “a banquet hall on holy ground,” echoing the fact that the king’s servants were sent out to extend the invitation to all. The Presentation Hymn is As We Gather at Your Table, whose third verse asks for help to “summon other guests to share that feast.” The Presentation Anthem sung by the Choir at the 11:30 Mass is As Truly As God Is Our Father (William Mathias), setting Julian of Norwich’s words “all shall be well,” a reflection of Isaiah’s promise that God will wipe away every tear.

The Communion Hymn is Taste and See (Brian Luckner), based on Psalm 34, which has been sung at Communion since at least the fourth century, an invitation to the table that echoes the feasts in Isaiah and the Gospel. The Communion Meditation at the 11:30 Mass is Like a River in My Soul (arr. Tim Osiek, ed. Dan Forrest), a spiritual of peace, love, and joy that recalls the “restful waters” of Psalm 23. The Final Hymn, How Can I Keep from Singing (Robert Lowry), expresses joy and trust in God, even in times of trouble. It echoes the end of the First Reading: “let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!”
