Introductory Rites

Greeting

Confiteor

I confess to almighty God
and to you, my brothers
and sisters,
that I have greatly sinned
in my thoughts and in my words,
in what I have done
and in what I have failed to do,

through my fault,
through my fault,
through my most grievous fault;
therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin,
all the Angels and Saints,
and you, my brothers and sisters,
to pray for me to the Lord our God.

First Reading

Acts 10:34A, 37-43

Peter proceeded to speak and said: “You know what has happened all over Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John preached, how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power. He went about doing good and healing all those oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.

We are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree. This man God raised on the third day and granted that he be visible, not to all the people, but to us, the witnesses chosen by God in advance, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

He commissioned us to preach to the people and testify that he is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness, that everyone who believes in him will receive forgiveness of sins through his name.”

Responsorial Psalm 118

This is the Day the Lord Has Made Marty Haugen

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us re - joice and be glad.

This is the day the Lord has made;
let us re - joice and be glad.

Verses: 1. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his mercy endures forever.
Let the house of Israel say, “His mercy endures forever.” Refrain:

2. “The right hand of the LORD has struck with power; the right hand of the LORD is exalted.
I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the LORD.” Refrain:

3. The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.
By the LORD has this been done; it is wonderful in our eyes. Refrain:

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

If then you were raised with Christ, seek what is above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God. Think of what is above, not of what is on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ your life appears, then you too will appear with him in glory.

Gospel Reading

John 20:1-9

On the first day of the week, Mary of Magdala came to the tomb early in the morning, while it was still dark, and saw the stone removed from the tomb. So she ran and went to Simon Peter and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and told them, "They have taken the Lord from the tomb, and we don't know where they put him."

So Peter and the other disciple went out and came to the tomb. They both ran, but the other disciple ran faster than Peter and arrived at the tomb first; he bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place.

Then the other disciple also went in, the one who had arrived at the tomb first, and he saw and believed. For they did not yet understand the Scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

The musical score consists of three staves of music in a 6/8 time signature with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is written on a treble clef staff. The lyrics are: "Al - le - lu - ia." on the first staff, "Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu -" on the second staff, and "ia, Al - le - lu - ia!" on the third staff. The word "All" is written above the first staff. The music features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some notes beamed together and others held as half notes.

This Joyful Eastertide

Hal Hopson

This joyful Eastertide, throw off all fear and gloom, for Christ is risen.
This day brings hope and cheer, for death is conquered, life forever is won.
The winter's past, the spring is here, all earth reflects the joy.
The dark of night is gone, so come let us be joyful,
Be joyful, be joyful, be joyful.

The cross was not in vain, for there the Son of God redeemed all sinners.
A crown of thorns He bore, but rose to be the King of Kings forever.
The winter's past, the spring is here, all earth reflects the joy.
The dark of night is gone, so come let us be joyful,
Be joyful, be joyful, be joyful.

From humblest birth He came, by word and deed He lived on earth among us.
In God's own image blessed, the Holy One, the Lord and Savior of all.
The winter's past, the spring is here, all earth reflects the joy.
The dark of night is gone, so come let us be joyful,
Be joyful, be joyful, be joyful.

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Communion Meditation

I Will Rise

Chris Tomlin

There's a peace I've come to know, Though my heart and flesh may fail.
There's an anchor for my soul, I can say "It is well."
Jesus has overcome, And the grave is overwhelmed. The victory is won,
He is risen from the dead.

Refrain: And I will rise when He calls my name,
No more sorrow, no more pain.
I will rise on eagle's wings.
Before my God fall on my knees,
And rise, I will rise.

There's a day that's drawing near, When the darkness breaks to light.
And the shadows disappear, And my faith shall be my eyes.
Jesus has overcome, And the grave is overwhelmed, The victory is won.
He is risen from the dead. Refrain:

And I hear the voice of many angels sing,
"Worthy is the Lamb" And I hear the cry of every longing heart,
"Worthy is the Lamb" And I hear the voice of many angels sing,
"Worthy is the Lamb" And I hear the cry of every longing heart,
"Worthy is the Lamb, Worthy is the Lamb," Refrain:

Rise! Rise! Rise!

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls.
