Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Recognizing Jesus

In the story of the road to Emmaus, it was not until Jesus blessed, broke, and shared bread that the two recognized their traveling companion. Although they had walked with Him and listened to Him connect the prophecy of Scripture to His own life and ministry, they didn't really know it was Jesus. Many of the post-Resurrection stories are filled with moments of people not recognizing the Risen Lord right away. It often takes a word or an action from Jesus Himself for people to realize it's really Jesus. So it goes for us sometimes. We may miss an experience of Jesus in our midst if we make assumptions about where we will find Him and what He will say and do.

As we go about life in these days of a "new normal," we can't allow our fear or impatience cloud our experience of the Risen Jesus who could be right before our eyes or dwelling in our hearts in a "new normal" of our life with Him. In my fear, I always hear Jesus saying: "Peace. Do not be afraid. I am with you always." In my impatience for wanting a "better normal" now, and in my frustration of working even harder in the "current normal," I hear: "Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest." Put simply, if we know the Jesus of the Gospels and all that He said and did, our anxiety can be transformed into a new awakening about His abiding presence and His desire to walk with us through it all.

Finally, how often are we surprised by Jesus who appears in that person who has come to our rescue? Whether it was a kind word, a thoughtful gesture, or something heroic, we are graced by many who represent Christ blessing us.

The Risen Lord is in our midst and knows what we need. If we accept that truth, we will always know Him and recognize Him.

Alleluia! He is Risen!

Father Rob

Fr. Skip and Blessed Sacrament Food Pantry Thanks You!

Last Saturday we had 111 cars and walk-ins show up and donate to Blessed Sacrament Food pantry. We'd like to give a special thanks to the Knights of Columbus for directing traffic and to 84sportsnc for loaning us a tent in the inclement weather!

"Jesus must have told you personally!" How else could you have known the huge quantity of groceries that we needed to refill our food pantry shelves? How else would you have known exactly the items that we needed the most? But you knew, and you gave so generously. God bless you all and protect you. We expect more than 150 people this Thursday. And they will all leave with full bags,...thanks to you!
