Words from Father Rob Kinnally

How to Love My Enemies: A Practical Plan

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus gives us one of the most challenging life lessons:

*To you who hear I say,
love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you.
To the person who strikes you on one cheek,
offer the other one as well,
and from the person who takes your cloak,
do not withhold even your tunic.
Give to everyone who asks of you,
and from the one who takes what is yours do not demand it back.
Do to others as you would have them do to you.*

So, realistically speaking, what is my responsibility to my enemies? Well, according to Jesus, we have to love them and act generously toward them. Why? Because Jesus said so and He has the best plan for a full and holy life. But how do we actually make that happen? Let me propose a plan for this kind of difficult love:

Desire the gift of Heaven for yourself and your dear ones.

Understand who your enemies are and why you call them "enemies." (Has any forgiveness happened? Could it happen now? Can I take someone "off the list"?)

Pray - by name - for those who have cursed, mistreated, or hurt you. (When we ask God to help the ones we name, we are reminded that God has called us each by name to something wonderful.)

Imagine that because of your prayers and your love, you and your enemies will meet one day in Heaven!

May your enemies be few, and may your love for them be strengthened by Christ's love for all.

Father Rob

Congratulations to our Students of the Month!

This month's theme was "Interact with Others". These students interact well with others and work as a team with classmates. They realized that we are all individuals called upon to work, live, and get along with one another. By interacting with others, they learn to accept others' strengths, weaknesses and differences.

Katherine's Kitchen
Serving Loaves of Love for Lent

Katherine's Kitchen Ministry is back for Lent. Our cooks will dedicate their efforts in the kitchen to the memory of Katherine, a teen parishioner who lost her life. She was always helping others and would have loved to be cooking for all those we are feeding.

For five weeks in Lent, we are looking for individuals, families and Confirmation students to cook and deliver a freshly-prepared meal, along with a loaf of bread and a prayer to your adopted family or individual. The meals will go to parish and outreach families, individuals who on occasions are unable to put food on the table, those with illness, recovering from surgery or to seniors who would love a home-cooked meal.

For more information or to request a meal yourself or put someone on our list, please contact Elena Schlegel at elenaschlegel@optonline.net OR Sign up to participate at: www.signupgenius.com/go/10c084dafad2caafb6-katherines2
