Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Leaving Everything and Following Jesus: What Is "Everything" and How Do I Do That?

This Sunday's readings speak to us about the call that comes from God. The prophet Isaiah seems anxious and uncertain as he encounters God who asks "Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?" Eventually, angst turns to surrender as the prophet exclaims: "Here I am...send me." In the Gospel, Jesus calls the first disciples. That experience has its own share of doubt, awe, wavering faith, and guilt; but the outcome is nothing short of vocation perfection: "they left everything and followed him."

Each one of us is called to a life of service to God and neighbor. What we leave behind when we commit to that life might include ego, a personal agenda, prejudice, obsessions, addictions, possessions, and fear. When God invites us to step away from whatever is preventing us from being our true selves, it is wise to say "yes." Submitting to God's desires for us is living like Jesus lived: completely obedient to the will of the Father. How do we get there? By heeding the words of Jesus spoken to the "first-called": "Be not afraid."

I ask you to pray for those in our diocese who are discerning a call to priesthood, the diaconate, consecrated life, and lay ministry in the Church. God always calls. Our prayers will help those called to say "Yes!" To help you put a face to your prayer, take one of the seminarian prayer cards on the shelves in the back of the church and pray for those guys often. Thanks!

Praying that we may never be afraid to leave everything, go to Jesus and love our neighbor,

Father Rob

Saint Aloysius School is looking to add personnel to its Substitute Teacher Roster. It is a great job for a college student, especially if they are studying to be a teacher.

The position is compensated on a per-day basis, and all candidates will need to attend a VIRTUS-Training, and be fingerprinted.

The only skill set needed is enthusiasm for Catholic Education - we will work with each substitute on the details and logistics of the position.

If you are interested, please email our Principal, Mr. Michael Marasco - mmarasco@sasncct.org.

Special Saint Augustine Medal of Service
In Recognition of Clergy and Religious in Pastoral Care
Saint Augustine Cathedral
Saturday, March 19, 2022 at 11:00 a.m.

Bishop Frank J. Caggiano will be celebrating a special Mass on the Solemnity of Saint Joseph, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary in recognition of all the clergy and religious who are serving in hospitals and nursing homes in the Diocese. Each will be presented a Special Saint Augustine Medal of Service.

All parishioners are invited to come as we honor Saint Joseph, Hope of the Sick, and as we demonstrate our deep gratitude to the clergy and religious who ministered to those in need when, in most cases, others – including local clergy – were not permitted to make pastoral or personal visits in hospitals and nursing homes due to COVID restrictions.
