Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Sunday of the Word of God

Pope Francis' Apostolic Letter, "Aperuit illis", published on 30 September 2019, establishes that "the Third Sunday in Ordinary Time is to be devoted to the celebration, study and dissemination of the Word of God". The timing of the document is significant: September 30 is the Feast of Saint Jerome, the man who translated most of the Bible into Latin, and who famously said: "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ".

The title of the document, "Aperuit illis", is taken from St Luke's Gospel, where the Evangelist describes how the Risen Jesus appeared to His disciples, and how "He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures". Recalling the importance given by the Second Vatican Council to rediscovering Sacred Scripture for the life of the Church, Pope Francis said he wrote this Apostolic Letter in response to requests from the faithful around the world to celebrate the Sunday of the Word of God.

The Holy Father stated that the Bible, which contains the word of God, is not meant for a privileged few; rather, it belongs "to those called to hear its message and to recognize themselves in its words". The Bible cannot be monopolized or restricted to select groups either, he writes, because it is "the book of the Lord's people, who, in listening to it, move from dispersion and division towards unity".

The Pope uses the scene of the Risen Lord appearing to the disciples at Emmaus to demonstrate what he calls "the unbreakable bond between Sacred Scripture and the Eucharist". Since the Scriptures everywhere speak of Christ, he writes, "they enable us to believe that His death and resurrection are not myth but history, and are central to the faith of His disciples". When the sacraments are introduced and illumined by God's Word, explains the Pope, "they become ever more clearly the goal of a process whereby Christ opens our minds and hearts to acknowledge His saving work".

"The role of the Holy Spirit in the Scriptures is primordial", writes Pope Francis. "Without the work of the Spirit, there would always be a risk of remaining limited to the written text alone". The Pope continues: "This would open the way to a fundamentalist reading, which needs to be avoided, lest we betray the inspired, dynamic and spiritual character of the sacred text". It is the Holy Spirit who "makes Sacred Scripture the living word of God, experienced and handed down in the faith of His holy people".

Pope Francis invites us never to take God's Word for granted, "but instead to let ourselves be nourished by it, in order to acknowledge and live fully our relationship with Him and with our brothers and sisters".

The Pope concludes his Apostolic Letter by defining what he describes as "the great challenge before us in life: to listen to Sacred Scripture and then to practice mercy". God's Word, writes Pope Francis, "has the power to open our eyes and to enable us to renounce a stifling and barren individualism and instead to embark on a new path of sharing and solidarity". The Letter closes with a reference to the Blessed Virgin Mary, who accompanies us "on the journey of welcoming the Word of God", teaching us the joy of those who listen to that Word – and keep it.

May we read, study, and pray with the Word of God often, and may the Word stir our hearts to be people of mercy.

Saint Aloysius School Be a Part of It!

Congratulations to our Students of the Month! This month's theme was Follow Your Faith. Our students not only want to learn prayers, beliefs and doctrines of our faith, they also want to live our faith. A student who follows their faith, remembers the lessons of Jesus and uses them as a guide or inspiration when making hard decisions. We can ask ourselves the simple question, "What would Jesus do?" A student of faith follows their Catholic morals and values in everyday life. These students make prayer a regular part of their lives, not only at school, but at home and with family:

Second Collection this weekend is for The Church in Latin America

This weekend will take up the Collection for the Church in Latin America. For many in Latin America and the Caribbean, a rising secular culture, difficult rural terrain, and a shortage of ministers all present obstacles to practicing the faith. Your donations fund catechesis, marriage and family life programs and seminarian formation, so that people can grow closer to Christ. Please prayerfully consider supporting this collection to share your faith with our brothers and sisters in Latin America and the Caribbean. To learn more click here.

Saint Aloysius School is looking to add personnel to its Substitute Teacher Roster. It is a great job for a college student, especially if they are studying to be a teacher.

The position is compensated on a per day basis, and all candidates will need to attend a VIRTUS-Training, and be fingerprinted.

The only skill set needed is enthusiasm for Catholic Education - we will work with each substitute on the details and logistics of the position.

If you are interested, please email our Principal, Mr. Michael Marasco - mmarasco@sasnct.org.
