Words from Father Rob Kinnally

The “End” of the Christmas Season and Feeling Grateful

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord signals the end of the Christmas Season. But does it truly end there? Well, liturgically speaking, it does. However, if we keep the coming of Christ into the world as a starting point for the indwelling of Christ in our hearts, then Christmas never ends. God’s gift of His Son -- his “beloved” in whom He is “well pleased” -- is God living forever in us. When Jesus is baptized in the Jordan, he is commissioned to go out to the world and spread the Good News. Our own baptism is the starting point of grace that helps us to accept the challenge to go out into the world and live the Good News. May God’s beloved Son give us the grace we need to draw closer to him this year and bring him to those in need of Good News!

There are so many in our parish community who made Christmas a true celebration of God-with-us. Here’s a list with some words of thanks and love, and an up-front apology if I left someone off the list:

To God who gave us his only begotten Son, the greatest gift the world will ever know...To Mary whose “Yes” brought Jesus, the Christ, to a waiting and weary world and who taught us that “nothing is impossible for God”...To our Holy Father, our Bishop, and all who lead us in faith for encouraging us to find the hope that is in the Incarnation...To Father David, Father Franklin, Father Bob, Father Tim, Deacon Bill for their generous hearts in ministry throughout the year...To Dr. John Michniewicz and our amazing musicians for gracing us with heavenly music to enhance our worship...To Michael Musilli, our faithful sacristan who prepares our sanctuary for worship and cares for clergy and faithful alike before during and after Mass...To Johnny Osterdorf, the master of live-streaming technology – for bringing church to home each day...To Willie Roeder for his care of our church (and every other building on our campus): you make it shine so we can experience the light of Christ...To Kevin Richardson and Angel Dominguez who assist in the care of our campus ...To the amazing office staff and other partners of Saint Aloysius: Danielle Balsamo, Sr. Donna Brodman, Rita Ferri, John Grosso, Susan Kiernan, Allison McCarthy, Mark Murphy, Jerry Murray (and his great team of weekly collection counters), Marie Osterdorf, Chris Otis, John Palma, Danielle Sibilis, Lynn Turiano, -- for their creativity, flexibility, and endless dedication throughout yet another challenging year...To Elizabeth Auda, who has partnered with me in my responsibility as chancellor of our diocese and does so much for us in the parish as well...To our weekday Mass servers who rise early to help make Mass happen...To Trisha Albus who, along with Gregg’s Garden and Landscaping (and help from Willie, Michael, Kevin, Angel, Sue Scannell, Debbie Dewey and Bob Albus), created a truly festive and beautiful Christmas environment throughout our church and gymnasium...To Loretta Buzzeo, her family, the Knights of Columbus and the rest of the crew who create the beautiful nativity scene on the corner of Cherry Street and South Avenue...To our many ministry leaders, the pastoral council, finance council, ushers, linen washers, readers, extraordinary ministers, weekend altar servers, and to my brother Knights of Columbus for their works of charity all year and their helpful service in the parking lot at Christmas...

And to every one of you who came to celebrate the newborn King in church or on-line...

THANK YOU! THANK YOU! THANK YOU!

Father Rob

Teens ... Make a Spiritual New Year's Resolution for 2022

Romans 12:1-2 calls us to daily transformation of our minds so we can know and live out God's will for us. "I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect."

Perhaps you will ask for God's help to:

Come to Mass EVERY Sunday

Pope Francis has asked the Church around the world to undertake a process of LISTENING ...

Listening to active members of the Church, as well as to persons who may feel excluded or estranged from the Church about their journey with Christ and with the Church.

Pope Francis wishes to enable people to communally or confidentially express, after prayer and reflection, how their parish and how the Church overall has enabled them to experience or not experience the love, compassion, mercy and consolation of God in their lives and the reality and support of a community of faith through the Catholic Church locally, nationally & globally.

In this new year, we will be arranging "listening sessions" and an online survey in which parishioners of all ages will be called to share from their own experiences the church's strengths and weaknesses, as well as the opportunities and challenges of our parish and the overall Church in fostering God's presence in their lives. We will then share our findings with Bishop Caggiano, who will in turn submit the feelings of our Diocese to Pope Francis.

Watch for how YOU can be a part of the Synod of Synodality!

Invite Our Blessed Mother in YOUR home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. The beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius in 2005 and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.

Annie C. Courtney Foundation, Inc.

In CT, there is an ongoing need for families for the more than 4000 children in foster care. This is especially true for older children, as they need either foster or adoptive resources. We hopes that they will find the love and support they need in foster, kinship and adoptive homes. Please also pray for the generous families who come forward to parent the children that they are blessed with the grace of God and receive the love and support from their communities necessary to successfully care for the children in their homes.

Annie C Courtney Foundation conducts information meeting for adults on how you can help by becoming a foster or adoptive
