Words from Father Rob Kinnally

News about Religious Education at Saint Aloysius

I am happy to inform you that Jennifer Joyce is our new Director of Religious Education (“DRE”). With years of experience as a classroom teacher and teacher of Religion, Jen was the first choice of the search committee. Jen and her husband Tom have four boys, two of whom are enrolled in the Saint Aloysius religious education program (the other two will join soon!). Jen’s vision for bringing the faith to our children and their families reflects an understanding of the challenges of Evangelization and the particular needs of our faith community. She has already assumed her new responsibilities, and soon she will be reaching out to parents about fall registration. Jen can be reached at dre@starcc.com.

My thanks to the search committee: Loretta Buzzeo, Father Cyrus, Tom Galgano, Colette LeBrun, and Sara Schubert. Their insights and advice, along with the inspiration of the Holy Spirit, truly guided us in the right direction.

I am grateful to Marie Pascale Vandall for her years of service and for her help in making Jen Joyce’s transition a smooth one. Please join me after the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday (in Stapleton Hall), to wish Marie many blessings as she embarks on her retirement.

On a related note, we are in need of additional catechists to teach in this exciting and important ministry. Little or no experience is required – we will provide the training and resources. Most classes have at least two catechists, and there is a wonderful opportunity to teach your own children, following them as they progress in the program. Please pray about this, and consider seriously God’s call to bringing Christ to our children. Not sure it’s for you? Call the Religious Education office to get your questions answered. And please keep Jen in your prayers as she begins her ministry in the Saint Aloysius Family of Faith!

Yours in Christ,

Father Rob

A New Men's Program
St. Joseph Series

Come and discuss with other men how to make this Father's Day a celebration of authentic Catholic masculinity. In our 75-minute sessions, we will gather, listen, pray, and discuss in greater depth the third Love from our Lenten Series - Men Love as Fathers. Our content will be delivered from the Formed Disciple series and will focus on the messages our sons and daughters receive from society and from us, as heroic models of virtue, through both our actions and words. As in the Lent series, we will conduct small and large group discussion around questions derived from the presentation.

All Men of the parish are invited to attend the final meeting before summer break in the Maple Street room at Wednesday, June 13th from 7:30 p.m.-8:45 p.m. You do not need to have attended previously. Please join us to discuss authentic Catholic masculinity and lives of heroic virtue. For further information contact st.aloysius.men@gmail.com.

Marie Pascale Vandall is retiring after 13 years as the Director of Religious Education (and many more years as a catechist) at St. Aloysius Church. Marie has served in the mission of the church by walking in faith and imparting that faith to our children and their families, helping them to know and love God.

We hope you can join us on Sunday, June 10th at the 10:00 a.m. Mass and coffee (in Stapleton Hall), as we celebrate and bless Marie Pascale Vandall as she transitions into retirement.

Meals on Wheels

Jesus Christ taught us that man not only receives and experiences the mercy of God, but we are called to practice mercy toward others: “Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy” Matthew 5:7. The Holy Spirit inspires our daily commitment to the Corporal Works of Mercy through selfless, compassionate acts in response to the needs of the most vulnerable members of our community.

Megan Morales recently “retired” from serving our parish in the Meals on Wheels Ministry. Our heartfelt THANKS to her for her dedication and commitment in extending God’s compassion and mercy to those in need.

“Then, when his days of ministry were completed, he went home.” Luke 1:23

We are NEVER TOO YOUNG TO SERVE: Our younger disciples came together to assemble summer activity bags for the children of Thorpe in the Bronx. The children decorated book marks, assembled the bags and then teens from Youth Ministry delivered them to the residents with an Italian ice treat. Activity Director Krimili shared in an email, “Thank you so much for coming on Sunday. I spoke with some of the kids and their parents and they loved their bags! Thanks to all who made this possible!”
