Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Thoughts on Trinity Sunday: One God, One Nation, and an Undivided Heart

Nearly every preacher approaches the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity with some trepidation, and I'm one of them. Lately I've come to a more meaningful embrace of the Father, Son, and Spirit, so permit me to share some of what I've come to understand. The teaching of the Trinity has its share of complexities: "one God, three Persons," an "everlasting unity," and so forth. The truth defies logic, but the beauty of it paints the story of our Christian lives: to know God as Father, Son, and Spirit is to live in the landscape of an undying and pervasive love that is given to us by The Three every day. To put it another way, imagine having someone in your life who loved you from the very beginning, showed you how to live life abundantly, and walked beside you forever through every joy and challenge. That's God as a Trinity, and that's what John's Gospel proclaims: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." The Creator sent the Redeemer who remains with us as Advocate – and they are one. Only God could keep us fully alive and feeling loved in such a splendid way.

The unity of the Trinity is paramount to our understanding of the relationship of The Three. Together, as One, the Trinity provides the gifts -- and even the fire in our soul -- that we need to love God, follow His commandments, and love one another. This gift of unity speaks to me in these days of tension when unity in families, in the Church, and in our country, is compromised. The racism and violence that plague us in the midst of another kind of plague leave us unsettled, uncertain, and – sadly – divided. Saint Paul calls us to right living in today's second reading: "Brothers and sisters, rejoice. Mend your ways, encourage one another, agree with one another, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you. Greet one another with a holy kiss." Jesus has taught us over and over how to treat one another: "love one another as I have loved you." That was demonstrated in parables like the Good Samaritan, in washing the feet of the disciples, in embracing the leper, in healing, in giving us the gift of peace. Jesus also taught us how to pray, and I always believe that's the best place to start. Our prayers will make a powerful difference, so let's pray for what we need: maybe it's healing, or understanding, or peace. Maybe it's something else that is on our heart. Thank you for your prayers, your patience as we slowly come back to church, and your love.

"The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you."

Father Rob

High School Teens in Fellowship, Prayer, Service and Worship!
Sign up at www.signupgenius.com, locating the sign ups under youth@starcc.com

Our teens and their families reached out to their adopted home-bound seniors for the great Feast of Pentecost and prayed the beautiful Prayer to the Holy Spirit from St. Augustine with them. Teen Vlad Roketsky and his mom reported this from his visit:

"I went to visit Mrs. P. on Sunday and we dropped off some carnations. The smile on her face enlightened my day. She was incredibly grateful and so kind. I could clearly tell that I put a spark in her day. This experience was amazing." We thank all our teens and their families for continuing to reach out to our seniors!

Annual Father's Day Breakfast Run Sunday, June 21

Our goal is to keep our teens safe and guarded, so unfortunately this year, our Father's Day Breakfast Run will be "staffed" by only those who are over 18 and with a parent. However, we need the help of our high school teen families to ensure they have what they need for our brothers and sisters on the streets. This year, please consider helping out:

Please sign up to donate some of the items below... All details and drop off instructions are on the Sign Up Genius at :

<https://bit.ly/FrDayBrkRun>

- Gallon size zip lock bags of a men's colored t-shirt and underwear of the same size.
- Gallon size Ziplock bag of toiletry kit items
- Breakfast Bags
- Hot Bacon, Egg and Cheese Sandwiches on a Roll

In order to ensure safety for all, donations will be packed and bagged by size. We are asking you to sign up for your donations, so that we can ensure we have all sizes covered.
