Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Fasting - in the Words of Pope Francis

Our Holy Father has compiled a wonderful way of practicing fasting this Lent; here's what he proposes:

Fast from hurting words and say kind words. Fast from sadness and be filled with gratitude. Fast from anger and be filled with patience. Fast from pessimism and be filled with hope. Fast from worries and have trust in God. Fast from complaints and contemplate simplicity. Fast from pressures and be prayerful. Fast from bitterness and fill your hearts with joy. Fast from selfishness and be compassionate to others. Fast from grudges and be reconciled. Fast from words and be silent so you can listen.

A Life-Giving Emmaus Retreat

After a two-year hiatus, the Emmaus retreat returned last weekend, and it was a life-giving experience for candidates and team alike. Uncertainty and postponements marked our attempts to hold the retreat in 2021 and early 2022, but the Holy Spirit spurred us on to persevere and welcome 46 candidates who were served by a dedicated team of teens, young adults, and adults. The entire weekend went off without a hitch, and more importantly, everyone grew closer to Christ. I am grateful to all who gave generously of their time and talent to make the weekend a transforming God-centered event!

Praying for Ukraine

Some folks across the world are stopping what they are doing at the same time every evening (7pm in the US) to pray for one minute. They pray for peace, for the security of every country in the world, for an end to problems that oppress and suppress, and for God to guide the decisions of rulers.

Pray every day for peace, for the people of the Ukraine, for all people who are the victims of violence of every kind. I came across this prayer that was offered last week by a city official at a public meeting in the U.K. I think it speaks beautifully about God, our purpose, and the desire for peace.

May we see the day when war and bloodshed cease, when a great peace will embrace the whole world. Then nation will not threaten nation, and humanity will not again know war. For all who live on earth shall realize we have not come into being to hate or to destroy. We have come into being to praise, to labor, and to love. Compassionate God, bless the leaders of all nations with the power of compassion.

Fulfill the promise conveyed in Scripture: I will bring peace to the Land, And you shall lie down, and no one shall terrify you. I will rid the Land of vicious beasts/And it shall not be ravaged by war./Let love and justice flow like a mighty stream./Let peace fill the earth as the waters fill the sea. Amen.

May Christ's peace reign in your hearts, your homes, and in the world.

Katherine's Kitchen
Serving Loaves of Love for Lent

Katherine's Kitchen Ministry is back for Lent. Our cooks will dedicate their efforts in the kitchen to the memory of Katherine, a teen parishioner who lost her life. She was always helping others and would have loved to be cooking for all those we are feeding.

For five weeks during Lent, we are looking for individuals, families and Confirmation students to cook and deliver a freshly-prepared meal, along with a loaf of bread and a prayer to your adopted family or individual. The meals will go to parish and outreach families, individuals who on occasions are unable to put food on the table, those with illness, recovering from surgery or to seniors who would love a home-cooked meal.

We need a few more volunteers and those who might be able to be subs and take a week or two. For more information or to join our team, please contact Elena Schlegel at elenaschlegel@optonline.net.

~ Parish & Other News ~

Last Sunday catechumens and candidates from all parishes in the diocese were presented to Bishop Caggiano at the Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion at St. Theresa Church in Trumbull.

The Bishop, in his homily, applauded the catechumens, those receiving Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, for their courage and fidelity. To candidates, who will be receiving Confirmation and Eucharist at the Easter Vigil, the bishop assured that in completing their Christian initiation they will be washed of their sins again. "He calls us to a new life", the Bishop said.

During the Rites catechumens and candidates proclaimed their desire to enter into the Roman Catholic faith at the Easter Vigil. Based on this, and testimony of the sponsors and catechists as to their readiness, the Church declared them ready to move on to the Easter Vigil to receive their Sacraments.
