Thanksgiving, Eucharist, and Christ the King

It's hard to believe that Thanksgiving is this week! This national holiday provides a wonderful opportunity, I believe, to reflect on the blessings God has given us and to connect those blessings to the Eucharist and our celebration of Christ the King, the solemnity of this Sunday.

The word "Eucharist" has its roots in Greek and it means "thanksgiving." It is the meal where we are drawn into the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus. Around the table of the Eucharist, we are recalling – in fact re-living – Jesus' great sacrifice, and that is cause for giving thanks. It is at the Eucharist where our sins are forgiven, the gates of Heaven are opened and we are once again in awe of God's great love for us – that He would walk among us, heal, comfort, and provide everlasting life. When we contemplate Christ as "King of the Universe," we turn our hearts not to a king of pomp and circumstance, but to a humble servant who died like criminals died at the time. To celebrate Christ as "king" is to be thankful that God cared enough about us that he would humble Himself, pour out His life for our sake, and lovingly reign over our blessed lives.

When we gather around our Thanksgiving tables this week, we should make room at the table for Christ, allowing him to rule over the festivities of that day (and the challenges and joys of every day) and acknowledge that the blessings for which we are grateful come from Him.

At this time of giving thanks, I am grateful for what God is doing in our blessed parish, and grateful too for all of you who walk with Christ and one another each day. Your prayers, your time, and your gifts build up the body of Christ and help us to gather with joy and hope at the Eucharist and move toward the Heavenly Banquet. Thank you for everything.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Father Rob

Level 1 Confirmation

We would like to thank our Level 1 Confirmation students and our amazing parish for making Project 1,000 possible again this year! When we come together as a community sharing our time, treasures and talents, it is a beautiful answer to God's call to put our faith into action.

Confirmation families and other parishioners made generous financial donations and stepped up to be Appalachian Angels to fund the stocking stuffers and 1,000 canned hams. Dr. Fessler donated 1,000 toothpastes and toothbrushes imprinted with "With God Nothing is Impossible" and Bigelow Tea supplied tea packets.

Our students wrote 1,000 letters, high school students gave witness to Confirmation students about the impact of this outreach to the children and families in Kentucky, led prayer for them and then our classes including the St. A's School 7th graders assembled the 1,000 stockings in small groups.

The stockings have been picked up by Kaster Moving and are on their way down to Kentucky to help make Christmas very special for 1,000 children! Special thanks to them for donating the boxes and arranging for shipping.

When you wake up on Christmas morning, as your feet hit the floor, please kneel and say a prayer for the 1,000 children and their families!

Coffee House to Benefit NYC Breakfast Run Friday, November 26. See invite on the next page.

High school and college teens with musical talents are invited to become involved in our Coffee House fundraiser on the Friday evening of Thanksgiving weekend. The event will be open to all parishioners and their families who are in town for the holiday. Teens interested in performing email youth@starcc.com.

Amidst disappointment that our Emmaus Retreat had to be postponed, our teens came together at the 5pm Teen Mass last weekend to pray and write notes to Fr. Rob for a speedy recovery! As they sang "Lord I Need You", were uplifted and left with confidence and security knowing that with our God the Father, Jesus and the Holy Spirit, they is nothing they cannot handle!
