Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Suffering with Jesus

He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and rise after three days. He spoke this openly. Then Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. At this he turned around and, looking at his disciples, rebuked Peter and said, "Get behind me, Satan. You are thinking not as God does, but as human beings do."

In this interchange from the Gospel for Sunday, Peter speaks for all those who have grown to respect -- and even have affection for -- Jesus. Who of Jesus' followers would want Jesus to "suffer greatly" and be killed? Certainly not Peter or any of the disciples who have come to appreciate the teaching, the healing, and the insight of their rabbi. Peter's rebuke of Jesus reveals the very human desire to keep our friends, mentors, and dear ones safe and sound forever. But for Jesus -- and for all of us who call ourselves His followers -- suffering and shouldering a cross is part of the deal.

I know Jesus said that, but do I really have to take on suffering? Perhaps if we pause and think about what suffering really means in light of what Christ has accomplished and how we are called to live out our discipleship, it all might make more sense. Suffering means doing what is right by Gospel standards and suffering whatever comes from the opposing force. Yes, so many of our brothers and sisters experience pain and suffering and offer it all for the intentions of others, uniting themselves in a unique way to the sufferings of Jesus. But let us also remember the beatitudes:

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Thus they persecuted the prophets who were before you.

Suffering comes to us in sickness, emotional pain, and enduring something that just plain hurts. But if we look to this Sunday's first reading and the life and ministry of Jesus, we are encouraged by God's saving power, comforted by Christ who is the healer of body and soul, and redeemed by the suffering servant Jesus:

The Lord God is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame. He is near who upholds my right; if anyone wishes to oppose me, let us appear together. Who disputes my right? Let that man confront me. See, the Lord GOD is my help; who will prove me wrong?

Suffering can draw us more deeply into the paschal mystery -- the suffering, dying, and rising of Christ. That mystery was for our sake. God does not cause suffering. God does not assign us crosses to bear. Rather, God challenges us to true Gospel living with the help of Jesus. We may suffer for holding fast to what Jesus teaches, but if we persevere and dare to invite others along, we will experience why Jesus came into our world: that we might have life and have it abundantly.

On this weekend when we mark the 20th anniversary of the September 11 attacks, may those who suffered loss and illness be consoled and healed by Christ, and may we live without fear in the care of the Lord God who is our help.

May God bless us always.

Father Rob

WEDDING JUBILEE MASS SEPTEMBER 25, 2021

Bishop Frank J. Caggiano will celebrate the annual Wedding Jubilee Mass on Saturday, September 25 at St. Matthew Parish in Norwalk. The Mass will honor married couples celebrating 25, 30, 35, 40, 45 and 50+ year wedding anniversaries in 2020 & 2021. Two liturgies have been scheduled in order to accommodate the large number of couples who will be honored. The first Mass will start at 10:30 am and the second Mass will begin at 1 pm. There will be a limit to the number of guests that couples can bring to make sure the diocese can accommodate two years' worth of anniversaries.

To register, please email the first name of both bride and groom, your email, and your wedding date to Barbara at weddingjubilee@diobpt.org or call 203.416.1641.
