

St. Aloysius Religious Education 2023-2024
Homeschool and/or missed classes make up work.

Below is a tutorial for this year's Religious Education program and what your child will need to do to submit their weekly homeschool assignments and/or if they missed an in-person class and want an excused absence.

This year we are using Finding God from Loyola Press. Below is the URL to access their site. (You will also notice throughout the book several QR codes which you and your child can use to get additional information.)

After your child has read and completed the work in that week's session, they should go to the URL above and do the interactive session review.

Below are images from Loyola's website which are step by step instructions to show you where to find these interactive session reviews.

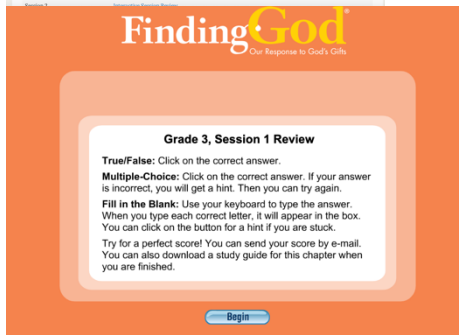

The image shows a sequence of four screenshots from the Loyola Press website, each with a callout box explaining a step in the navigation process:

- Step 1: The first screenshot shows the main 'Finding God' page. A callout box points to the 'Family Resources' link in the top navigation bar.
- Step 2: The second screenshot shows the 'Family Resources' page. A callout box points to the 'Families' link in the left sidebar.
- Step 3: The third screenshot shows the 'Families' page. A callout box points to the 'Select Grade/Resource' section.
- Step 4: The fourth screenshot shows the 'Select Grade/Resource' dropdown menu. A callout box points to the 'Grade 3' option.

Step 5 the page where you will find additional resources and the interactive session review.

Use the web browsers side scroll bar to see additional reviews.

Step 6 the page you see after click on the interactive session review.

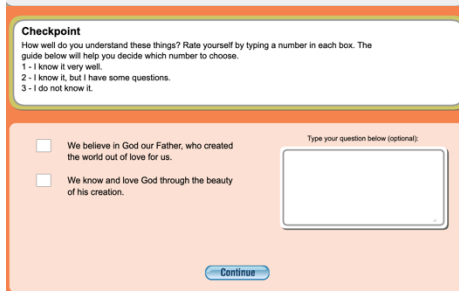

Follow the onscreen instructions and begin.

Children should not be intimidated by this because it gives you hints, and you can't move on to the next question until you give a correct answer.

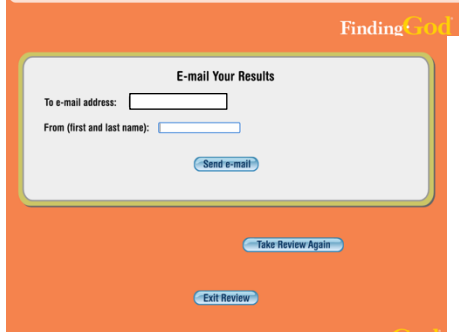

Step 7 Once you finish all the questions you will get this message.

You must click continue.

Step 8 this checkpoint page is for your child to ask questions about the lesson. Since they are not in person for classes, we want them to know we are available to answer their questions.

You must click continue even if you don't have a question to ask.

The final step. Complete the information on this page so that we can get your work.
