Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Summer Vacation!

Dear Friends,

I am hopeful that many of us will be able to get away during the summer and experience the renewal that comes from spending time in a favorite locale and creating memories with friends and family. Jesus often went up the mountain to pray and step away from the daily fray, and when he returned he was energized and ready for the next challenge in his life and ministry. I pray that you will make the time to read, pray, sit at the beach, visit family and friends, see a new place, and reconnect with God along the way.

To that end, I will take the summer off from my column and will make myself scarce for most of August. Besides reading some of those books that have been sitting in my "Intend-to-Read" pile, I'll be keeping all of you in prayer. May we all heed the words of Jesus to his disciples: "Come away by yourselves to a deserted place and rest a while." (Mark 6:31)

Wishing you a peaceful summer,

Father Rob

June 21, 2022

My Dear Friends in Christ:

I am delighted to inform you that this year's Co-Op Mission Weekend is scheduled for July 16 and 17, 2022. Thankfully, we have returned to the normal practice of inviting speakers to visit our diocese. We are blessed to welcome USA representatives of various church ministries that serve the developing world, and to hear about the needs of our sisters and brothers throughout the world.

In previous letters, I have shared with you the horrendous impact that Covid has had on the already difficult conditions faced by our brothers and sisters in the developing world. The war in the Ukraine, the violent attacks in Nigeria, the ongoing deforestation of the Amazon, among other global atrocities, have worsened the availability of basic needs such as water, food, medicine and housing. The need for assistance has never been greater.

Therefore, I ask you be as generous as possible to assist our visiting missionaries. They are truly "front-line" responders who give of themselves to our global family. Your prayers and your donations are much needed and are appreciated more than you might realize.

In anticipation of your generosity, I wish to express my sincere thanks and a promise of continued prayers for you and your loved ones.

With every best wish, I am,

Sincerely yours in Christ,
