Words from Father Rob Kinnally

The Truth of the Trinity

Jesus speaks of the relationship between Spirit and Truth in today's Gospel on this feast of the Most Holy Trinity. If we believe in Jesus, we know what truth is because he teaches truth and is Truth itself. If we believe in Jesus, we believe in the Spirit and receive all those amazing and helpful gifts (knowledge, counsel, understanding, and more), and if we believe that we have received all of that, we see a challenging world through a helpful lens. Jesus says it plainly:

But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth.

With the gifts of the Spirit and a strong belief in Jesus, we can discern the truth and live it. When obstacles appear, when darkness rolls in, when struggles emerge, we will remember that there is hope that comes from believing in Jesus whose Father created us in love to live abundantly. When we don't know the truth about the things that happen around us, we need to ask the Spirit. Then, as Jesus says, the Spirit of the Lord, who is Truth, will lead us to all truth.

The power of believing in Jesus is echoed in the second reading today; it gives great consolation to troubled and weary souls:

Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have gained access by faith to this grace in which we stand, and we boast in hope of the glory of God. Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us.

May the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit guide you to truth, and may the hope that comes from believing in the Trinity bring you joy.

Father Rob

Welcome the Kosenko Family!

Saint Aloysius parish is pleased to sponsor Andrii and Mariia Kosenko and their two daughters (age 8 and 9) from Ukraine. We are hopeful that the Kosenko Family can travel to New Canaan sometime in July after all of the necessary paperwork is completed. When they arrive, they will literally need everything to set up a home here, until they can get settled and find employment.

A list has been put together, and it being updated regularly with items the Kosenko's will be needing. Please click the link below for more information and sign up for an item or two.

Invite Our Blessed Mother in YOUR home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. The beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius in 2005 and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.

Malta House Is Looking for Nursery Volunteers

If your gift is with infants and young children, the Malta House nursery will feel like home to you. Our babies come to the nursery as early as 6 weeks old and up to one year of age.

The nursery is short-staffed and is in need of volunteers in our nursery everyday, throughout the day, from 7:00 a.m.-6:00 p.m. All volunteers 18 and older must be compliant with diocesan safe environments requirements and VIRTUS-trained. Teens under 18 may serve with a parent or guardian! If you have not volunteered in the nursery before and need orientation training before your first shift or have questions, please contact Susan Zelman at szelman@maltahouse.org.
