Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Giving the World Something to Eat

As I was preparing to write something about the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Christ, I came upon Gerald Darring’s reflection on world hunger in light of Jesus’s challenge in Sunday’s Gospel to “give them something to eat.” It puts things in perspective. Here’s what Gerald wrote:

When the disciples came to Jesus with the request to dismiss the people to go find food, Jesus challenged them with the question: “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?” That question should haunt us today.

More than enough food is grown to feed everyone on this planet. “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?”

More than 60,000 people will die of hunger on this feast of the Body and Blood of Christ. Two-thirds of them will be children. “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?”

Nearly one in five people worldwide is chronically malnourished – too hungry to lead a productive, active life. “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?”

One-third of the world’s children are significantly underweight for their age. “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?”

The amount of money the world spends on weapons in one minute could feed 2,000 malnourished children for a year. “Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?”

Jesus is our living bread. It is his obvious intention that we be well fed. The Eucharist, a great gift from the same God that sent the manna in the desert, should strengthen the determination of both the hungry and the satisfied to do what it takes to eliminate hunger.

As we celebrate the gift of the Eucharist and the feast of our patron, Aloysius Gonzaga, who served God’s poor and sick with sacrificial love, I pray that our parish family will always gather around the Eucharistic table and feed one another – and the world – in love.

Happy Feast Days and Happy Father’s Day!

Father Rob

*We held our beautiful and emotional Graduation Mass and Celebration of our seniors last weekend! Fr. Rob shared inspiring words for our graduates and in our traditional candle lighting sent them forth with a blessing to be the light of Christ in the world and asked for God's protection and blessings upon them. Special thanks to Caty Galgano and Kelly Damore for singing our Communion meditation song, The Commission. The Gym was full of smiles as we enjoyed a bountiful buffet and amazing décor. Our senior teen leaders were recognized and Father Chris Ford, Director of Campus Ministry for the Diocese of Bridgeport. He gave them great advice to continue their Catholic faith in college and shared information on the Newman Connection. A BIG thanks to all who helped! ## Invite Our Blessed Mother in YOUR home

Our Lady appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal in 1917. She asked them to tell the world to pray the Rosary for world peace. Her request is as important now as it was then. The beautiful statue of the Blessed Mother was brought back from Fatima to St. Aloysius in 2005 and has been traveling to families in our parish since then. Those who have had the statue and prayed the rosary speak of the blessings received.

Rosary beads and instructions on how to say the Rosary accompany the statue. Please take the opportunity to introduce this beautiful devotion to your family. If you have any questions about the statue or how to say the Rosary or would like to reserve a time to have the statue, please call or email Sue Lione, (203) 966-5961 or slione@optonline.net.

Welcome the Kosenko Family!

Saint Aloysius parish is pleased to sponsor Andrii and Mariia Kosenko and their two daughters (age 8 and 9) from Ukraine. We are hopeful that the Kosenko Family can travel to New Canaan sometime in July after all of the necessary paperwork is completed. When they arrive, they will literally need everything to set up a home here, until they can get settled and find employment.

A list has been put together, and it being updated regularly with items the Kosenko's will be needing. Please click the link below for more information and sign up for an item or two.

Your generosity is very much appreciated as we help provide the Kosenko Family with a safe place and fresh start here in New Canaan.
