Words from Father Rob Kinnally

How long, Lord?

After I wrote last week about life and the growing indifference to the value and sanctity of human life, we hear about another tragic event – this time in Texas. Once again we weep, pray, and wonder why. The lament of Psalm 13 seems to sum up the feelings of many:

*How long, Lord?
How long must I carry sorrow in my soul,
grief in my heart day after day?
How long will my enemy triumph over me?
Look upon me, answer me, Lord, my God!
Give light to my eyes lest I sleep in death,
Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed."*

The prophecy of Jeremiah speaks to the most unimaginable – a repeat of the terror of Sandy Hook:

*In Ramah is heard the sound of sobbing, bitter weeping!
Rachel mourns for her children,
she refuses to be consoled
for her children – they are no more!*

Brothers and sisters, we are destroying one another; and that is why everyone of us who has heard the mandate from God spoken in Deuteronomy to “choose life” must act to effect change in the law of land so that all life is protected. Write, call, march – whatever you can do to make a difference. Pray that the world embraces life.

And at all times...Take care of one another. Encourage one another. Be attentive to those who do not believe they should be alive; tell them that you love them and get them the help they need. Listen to the stories of the aging and the lonely: learn from their lives. Do not forget those who mourn the loss of life: sit with them, listen, and pray with them. Give thanks for life, and everyday do something that is lifegiving.

I pray that our lamenting is one day turned into rejoicing, and so I turn again to the author of Psalm 13 again for a glimmer of hope:

*But I trust in your mercy.
Grant my heart joy in your salvation.*

I love you and pray for you every day.

Father Rob

Religious Education
Grades K - 8

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN

Registration for Religious Education Grades K-8 2022-2023 academic year is now open. This year we will be offering Kindergarten Classes, increasing our Religious Education program offering from Kindergarten thru 8th Grade. Due to construction of our new Faith Formation Center building, all K-6 classes will be held at South School on Sundays (with exception of our new "Choir and Religious Education" program). Eighth grade students in Confirmation prep classes previously held on the St. Aloysius campus will be notified with your new location.

South School Class Time Options

- Early Morning Session from 8:45 a.m. - 9:45 a.m.
- Late Morning Session 11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.
- Afternoon Session 3:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Class times were purposely configured around our Church schedule, allowing students to attend Mass. Families continue to have the option to choose a homeschool track where we will provide you the materials you need to teach your children at home. Please note 1st and 2nd graders must attend class in person as this is a sacramental preparation year and we do not allow homeschooling.

NEW - Choir and Religious Education

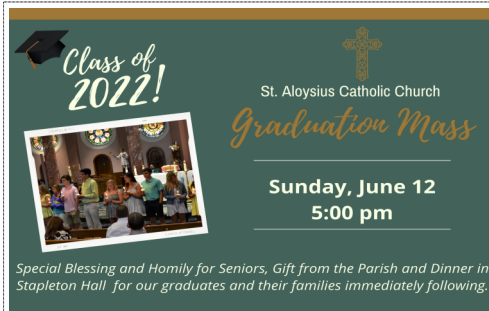

Religious Education has partnered with the St. Aloysius Music Ministry for an exciting alternative to traditional CCD Class! Starting this fall, your child/children will have the option to participate in the St. Aloysius Youth Choir as their Religious Education fulfillment. Both CCD material and Youth Choir material will be covered during each session. This class will be limited to 50 students in Grades 3-6. Details are as follows:

- CCD/Choir Rehearsal Sunday morning from 8:30-9:45 a.m. in Stapleton Hall (required)
- Youth Choir will sing at one scheduled 10am Mass per month. Dates TBD (required)
- Youth Choir will sing at special Christmas and Easter Concerts/Masses (required, *exceptions permitted on a case-by-case basis)

Students who register for this class will be required to attend a scheduled "Meet & Greet Audition" prior to the start of classes to ensure this class is the right fit! This Religious Education alternative is perfect for children who are interested in music or have already participated in musical activities in some capacity. However, all levels are welcome! Registration is open for all classes and will close on July 29th, 2022.

Click

Thus an act or omission which, of itself or by intention, causes death in order to eliminate suffering constitutes a murder gravely contrary to the dignity of the human person and to the respect due to the living God, his Creator.

An Opportunity to Support A Family from Ukraine

Our parish has been presented with a wonderful opportunity to support a family that has fled Ukraine. Attorney Paul Knag of our parish has been assisting families from Ukraine who have been evacuated to Mexico and are awaiting the help they need to move forward and make a temporary home in the United States. This is an urgent need and would involve a parish-wide effort to provide or facilitate housing, education, and other resources. We ask that you pray about how God might be calling you or your family to participate.

Our committee has been formed (but there's always room for more!), and we have been introduced to a family of four to support! We will announce their names soon so that the entire parish can begin to pray for them. In addition, we will provide a list of immediate needs and will announce the date of a special collection and ways to donate going forward. Please check this week's weekly email notification and the bulletin for the details. Thank you for your generosity!

If you have any questions, please contact
Paul Knag at pknag@murthalaw.com.

Eucharistic Adoration in the Church

Thursdays from 7:30 a.m. to 8:30 a.m.
(immediately following 7:00 a.m. Mass).

Come and spend some quiet time with the Lord.

Katherine's Kitchen Ministry was so well received this Lent. It resulted in moments of grace, beautiful friendships and very special encounters as our cooks dedicated their efforts in the kitchen to the memory of Katherine, a teen parishioner who lost her life. She was always helping others and would have loved to be cooking for all those we are feeding!

To continue this outreach and are looking for individuals, families and Confirmation students to cook and deliver a freshly-prepared meal, along with a loaf of bread and a prayer to your adopted family or individual. The meals will go to parish and outreach families, individuals who on occasions are unable to put food on the table, those with illnesses, recovering from surgery or seniors who would love a home-cooked meal! You can cook once-a-month, twice-a-month or every week ... you decide what will work best for you!

For more information or to request a meal yourself or put someone on our list, please contact Elena Schlegel at elenaschlegel@optonline.net
