Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Understanding the Mass – The Concluding Rites

After the prayer after Communion is offered, announcements may be made. The celebrant then blesses the people assembled. Sometimes the blessing is very simple. On special days, the blessing may be more extensive, and often the assembly is asked to bow their heads and respond "Amen" to each of the blessing petitions. In every case, the blessing always concludes "in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." It is in the triune God and in the sign of the cross that we find our blessing.

After the blessing, the deacon (or priest if there is no deacon) dismisses the people. In fact, the dismissal gives the liturgy its name. The word "Mass" comes from the Latin word, "Missa." At one time, the people were dismissed with the words "Ite, missa est," meaning "Go, you are sent. The word "Missa" comes from the word "missio," the root of the English word "mission." The liturgy does not simply come to an end. Those assembled are sent forth to bring the fruits of the Eucharist to the world.

In the Diocese of Bridgeport, the Prayer to Saint Michael is recited after the dismissal. This additional prayer was added by Bishop Caggiano to ask Saint Michael, the Archangel, to protect all in the diocese from evil as we navigate a complicated world. And by the way, did you notice the Saint Michael statue in the narthex? It was a gift to our parish, and I have noticed that there are more than a few candles lit in front of Saint Michael. In a special way, the statue is dedicated to our police and other first-responders who work so hard to protect and care for us here in New Canaan.

This concludes our brief walk through the Mass. In future columns I will mention a few other interesting facts about the Mass, especially as our country engages in a Eucharistic revival under the leadership of our bishops.

On this Gaudete Sunday, may you rejoice more heartily as the great feast of Christmas draws near.

Father Rob

CAMPAIGN

We Stand with Christ Campaign and Project for Saint Aloysius

Dear Friends,

We are moving upward toward our goal, and I humbly ask that if you haven't pledged yet, you will pray about making a sacrificial gift at the end of the year. Please remember that pledges can be made over a five-year period. Thank you for your generosity!

- You may have noticed the demolition notifications in the press and on the 30 Maple Street building and on the school. Our neighbors have been notified, and we are hopeful that we can move forward soon.
- We are waiting for the final word on our timing with the Planning and Zoning board.
- Measurements and locations have been finalized for the new heating and air-conditioning system in the church, and the equipment is on order.
- We continue to tweak rooms and other spaces in the new facilities.
- I have requested $150,000 from the Town of New Canaan to assist us in launching our new Pre-K program. The monies are available from US Government ARPA funding. If you think having a pre-K program is a good idea for our town, don't hesitate to write to the New Canaan Town Council!

Let's aim for 100% participation: every gift – large or small – makes a difference in transforming our campus!

Gratefully,
Father Rob

Pledge Here

This weekend, is Gaudete Sunday, the Third Sunday of Advent, we will be celebrating Bambinelli Sunday.

Bring your baby Jesus from your nativity scene for a special blessing at the 10:00am Mass.

During the seasons of Advent and Christmas, many of us display the Nativity scene in our homes. This custom depicting the birth of Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas creche for Christ on Christmas Eve in 1223. This manger reminds us of the humble birth of Christ.

Pope John Paul II began the tradition of Bambinelli Sunday during his papacy to remind families about the joyous event of Baby Jesus' arrival in the manger. On that day children gather with their families in St. Peter's Square during the noontime Angelus prayer and bring figures of the Christ Child from their family's Nativity scene. Pope Francis blesses the children and the figurines they have brought.
