Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Understanding the Mass: The Eucharist – Part 3

The Communion Rite follows the Eucharistic Prayer, leading the faithful to the Eucharistic table to receive the Lord.

The rite begins with the Lord's Prayer. Jesus taught this prayer to his disciples when they asked him how to pray (cf. Mt 6:9-13, Lk 11:2-4). In this prayer, the people join their voices to pray for the coming of God's kingdom and to ask God to provide for our needs, forgive our sins, and bring us to the joy of heaven.

The Rite of Peace follows. The celebrant prays that the peace of Christ will fill our hearts, our families, our Church, our communities, and our world. As a sign of hope, the people extend to those around them a sign of peace, typically by shaking hands.

In the Fraction Rite, the celebrant breaks the consecrated bread as the people sing the Agnus Dei or "Lamb of God." John the Baptist proclaimed Jesus as "the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (Jn 1:29). The action of breaking the bread recalls the actions of Jesus at the Last Supper, when he broke the bread before giving it to his disciples. One of the earliest names for the Eucharistic celebration is "the breaking of the bread."

Before receiving Communion, the celebrant and assembly acknowledge that we are unworthy to receive so great a gift. The celebrant receives Communion and then the people come forward. Those who receive Communion should be prepared to receive so great a gift. They should fast (except for medicines) for one hour before receiving the Eucharist and should not be conscious of having committed serious sin.

Because sharing at the Eucharistic Table is a sign of unity in the Body of Christ, only Catholics may receive Communion. Our prayer is that the day will come when we shall all be one and partake of the One Bread and One Cup. I have been praying intentionally for that unity after receiving Communion since my seminary days, asking our Eucharistic Lord to bring us all together.

The people approach the altar and, bowing with reverence, receive Communion. People may receive the Body of Christ either on the tongue or in the hand. The priest or other minister offers the Eucharist to each person saying, "The Body of Christ. The person receiving responds by saying, "Amen," a Hebrew word meaning, "So be it."

As the people receive Communion, a song or psalm is sung. The unity of voices echoes the unity the Eucharist brings. All may spend some time in silent prayer of thanksgiving as well.

The Communion Rite ends with the Prayer after Communion which asks that the benefits of the Eucharist will remain active in our daily lives.

I pray that your Advent is off to a great start!

Father Rob

CAMPAIGN

Dear Friends,

In this column each week, I will give you an update on our fund-raising, renovation, and building progress. Thank you for your generosity and your input; we are moving forward nicely!

- We are at $14.5 million in pledges toward our goal of $26 million
- So far we have raised nearly $200,000 in pledges from our "In-Pew" Sunday a few weeks ago. I'm so grateful to our capital campaign committee members who volunteered to answer your questions in the back of the church!
- An article about the project appeared in the New Canaanite. Check it out here: St. Aloysius Parish Reimagines Campus with Planned 'Education and Faith Center'
- We have filed the demolition paperwork with the town; you will notice some signs on or close to the buildings that will come down in order to make way for our new facilities
- We have submitted the construction paperwork and hope to get on the town planning and zoning calendar in January
- HVAC work on the third floor of 40 Maple Street (the old church) was completed this summer
- The gas lines have been run from the street into the church in preparation for a new heating system
- The bidding process for some of the renovations and upgrades in the church is underway
- The architects are finalizing some of the drawings and providing schematics for the new buildings, and soon we will be meeting to give more detail to individual rooms

Let's aim for 100% participation – every gift, large or small, makes a difference in transforming our campus! Please pledge now.

Gratefully,

Father Rob

Next weekend, on Gaudete Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent, we will be celebrating Bambinelli Sunday.

Bring your baby Jesus from your nativity scene for a special blessing at the 10:00am Mass.

During the seasons of Advent and Christmas, many of us display the Nativity scene in our homes. This custom depicting the birth of Christ owes its origin to St. Francis of Assisi, who made the Christmas creche for Christ on Christmas Eve in 1223. This manger reminds us of the humble birth of Christ.

Pope John Paul II began the tradition of Bambinelli Sunday during his papacy to remind families about the joyous event of Baby Jesus' arrival in the manger. On that day children gather with their families in St. Peter's Square during the noontime Angelus prayer and bring figures of the Christ Child from their family's Nativity scene. Pope Francis blesses the children and the figurines they have brought.

Advent is the beginning of our preparation for the coming of Jesus. And, it is no coincidence that in the RCIA program we also celebrate our RCIA participants' preparation to date. Those previously baptized will receive Rite Of Welcoming and become Candidates. Those unbaptized will receive the Rite of Acceptance and become Catechumens. This is the beginning of the Catechumenate stage of the RCIA program which is the 2nd of 4 stages.

During these Rites at the 8:30 a.m. Sunday mass, RCIA participants will be signed with the cross as a sign of readiness to bear witness to Christ with their whole life. We ask you to please pray for all those in the RCIA program as they continue their journey.
