Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Understanding the Mass - The Liturgy of the Eucharist, Part 1

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts and the altar. As the ministers prepare the altar, representatives of the people bring forward the bread and wine that will become the Body and Blood of Christ. The celebrant blesses and praises God for these gifts and places them on the altar. The prayers of blessing echo the Jewish blessing of bread and wine at the Friday night sabbath gathering. In addition to the bread and wine, monetary gifts for the support of the Church and the care of the poor are brought forward.

After the gifts and altar are prepared, the Eucharistic Prayer begins. This prayer of thanksgiving is the heart of the Liturgy of the Eucharist. (The Greek word "eucharistia" means "thanksgiving.") In this prayer, the celebrant acts in the person of Christ as head of his body, the Church. He gathers not only the bread and the wine, but the substance of our lives and joins them to Christ's perfect sacrifice, offering them to the Father.

After a brief introductory dialogue, the celebrant begins the Preface. The Preface tells of the wonderful actions of God, both throughout history and in our lives, giving thanks to God for all these things. The Preface concludes with the Sanctus ("holy, holy, holy...") in which the whole assembly joins the song of the angels giving praise to the Father in heaven. This prayer is taken from Isaiah 6:3.

The next major part of the Eucharistic Prayer is the epiclesis (from the Greek word meaning "invocation"). In the epiclesis, the priest asks the Father to send the Holy Spirit on the gifts of bread and wine so that, through the power of the Spirit, they may become the Body and Blood of Christ. This same Spirit will transform those attending the liturgy that they may grow in their unity with each other, with the whole Church, and with Christ. During the epiclesis, the priest places his hands over the bread and wine.

The prayer continues with the institution narrative and consecration. This part of the prayer recalls the action of Jesus Christ on the night before his death. He gathered with his closest disciples to share a final meal. In the course of this meal, he took the simple bread and wine, blessed them, and gave them to his friends as his Body and Blood. In our Eucharistic celebration, through the words of the priest and the action of the Holy Spirit, simple bread and wine once again become the Body and Blood of Christ.

The Eucharistic Prayer continues with the anamnesis, literally, the "not forgetting." The people proclaim the memorial acclamation, recalling the saving death and resurrection of the Lord. The prayer continues as the celebrant recalls the saving actions of God in Christ.

Next week we will continue exploring the Eucharistic Prayer. In the meantime, I pray that through this understanding, you may grow closer to our Lord who is present in the Eucharist.

Father Rob

St. Aloysius Scouts BSA Troop 45

Troop 45 would like to thank everyone who helped make this year's Spaghetti Dinner Meal-kit Fundraiser a success. We sold 75 kits this year, which included 28 kits that were donated to families in need (Breakthrough families, Malta House moms and Schoolhouse Apartment residents). Profits generated from the sale and cash donations received will be used to purchase camping and cooking equipment and pay for high adventure activities. We look forward to working with the other ministries and parishioners at St. Aloysius to serve and support our community in the coming year.
