Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Thanksgiving, Eucharist, and Christ the King

Please permit me to take a break from my series on the Mass to say a few words about Thanksgiving, the Solemnity of Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, and the relationship of the two events to the Eucharist. The nation's observance of Thanksgiving provides an opportunity to reflect on the blessings God has given us. As the newcomers to America gave thanks for the new-found religious freedom, we pause from our labors to express our gratitude for what we have received from God.

The word "Eucharist" has its roots in Greek and it means "thanksgiving." It is the meal where we are drawn into the Paschal Mystery – the suffering, dying, and rising of Jesus. Around the table of the Eucharist, we are recalling – in fact re-living – Jesus' great sacrifice, and that is cause for giving thanks. It is at the Eucharist where our sins are forgiven, the gates of Heaven are opened and we are once again in awe of God's great love for us – that He would walk among us, heal, comfort, and provide everlasting life. When we contemplate Christ as "King of the Universe," we turn our hearts not to a king of pomp and circumstance, but to a humble servant who died like criminals died at the time. To celebrate Christ as "king" is to be thankful that God cared enough about us that he would humble Himself, pour out His life for our sake, and lovingly reign over our blessed lives.

When we gather around our Thanksgiving tables this week, we should make room at the table for Christ, allowing him to rule over the festivities of that day (and the challenges and joys of every day) and acknowledge that the blessings for which we are grateful come from Him.

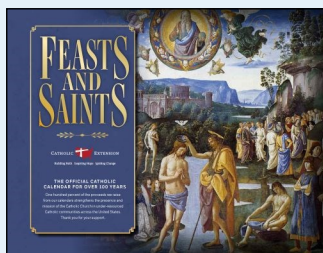

At this time of giving thanks, I am grateful for what God is doing in our blessed parish, and grateful too for all of you who walk with Christ and one another each day. Your prayers, your time, and your gifts build up the body of Christ and help us to gather with joy and hope at the Eucharist and move toward the Heavenly Banquet. Thank you for everything.

Happy Thanksgiving!

Gratefully yours in Christ,

Father Rob

The Saint Aloysius Parish 2023 Calendars "Feasts and Saints" are now available on the tables by the side entrances to the church. Many thanks to Fessler Family Dentistry who was our generous sponsor once again this year for the calendars. Please take one per family.

Confirmation

Some of our Level 1 Confirmation Students spent time on a beautiful day last weekend praying for the Souls of the Faithful Departed at the cemetery. What a beautiful way to put their faith into action!

Level 1 and Level 2 Confirmation students happily came together to prepare bags; and distribute them at all the Masses this weekend in preparation for our Thanksgiving Food Drive.
