Words from Father Rob Kinnally

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS: THE INTRODUCTORY RITES

I return to my explanation of the Mass with a description of the introductory rites along with a reminder about genuflecting and preparing for Mass.

Before the Mass begins, the assembly (the congregation) gathers, and before taking their place, they genuflect or bow as an act of reverence to Christ present in the tabernacle. Sometimes in our rush to get to our seats we forget this act of reverence, but it is important to give the Lord honor as we enter the church. It is customary to spend some time in private prayer to prepare for Mass, asking God to free us from any distractions and to open our hearts to Christ who is present in Scripture, Sacrament, assembly, and the ministers.

The Mass begins with the entrance chant/song. The celebrant and other ministers enter in procession and reverence the altar with a bow and/or a kiss. The altar is often said to represent Jesus Christ, the "cornerstone" of the Church (cf. Ephesians 2:20). Early documents about the Mass indicate that the priest would sometimes kiss the altar before blessing the people, symbolizing how the blessing came from God, not the priest. Additionally, relics of saints were inserted into the altar so when the priest kissed the altar, he would be kissing the relics as well. Altars have been set apart for a specific purpose and kissing the altar recognizes its privileged role and relation to Christ's sacrifice.

All make the Sign of the Cross and the celebrant extends a greeting to the gathered people in words taken from Scripture.

The Penitential Act follows the greeting. At the very beginning of the Mass, the faithful recall their sins and place their trust in God's abiding mercy. The Penitential Act includes the Kyrie Eleison, a Greek phrase meaning, "Lord, have mercy." This litany recalls God's merciful actions throughout history. On Sundays, especially in Easter Time, in place of the customary Penitential Act, from time to time the blessing and sprinkling of water to recall Baptism may take place.

On Sundays, solemnities, and feasts, the Gloria follows the Penitential Act. The Gloria begins by echoing the proclamation of the angels at the birth of Christ: "Glory to God in the highest!" In this ancient hymn, the gathered assembly joins the heavenly choirs in offering praise and adoration to the Father and Jesus through the Holy Spirit.

The Introductory Rites conclude with an opening prayer, called the Collect. The celebrant invites the gathered assembly to pray and, after a brief silence, proclaims the prayer of the day. The Collect gathers the prayers of all into one and disposes all to hear the Word of God in the context of the celebration.

Second Collection this weekend is for World Mission Sunday

World Mission provides us a tangible opportunity to assist our Catholic brothers and sisters in faith by supporting and sustaining priests, religious and lay pastoral leaders in more than 1,100 mission dioceses in Asia, Africa, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe. Through our generosity and prayers, we will empower Catholic leaders in the developing world to serve the hungry, protect the persecuted, and serve the abandoned in their midst.

Six Saint Aloysius Parishioners Recognized for Service at Annual Saint Augustine Medal Ceremony

The Saint Augustine Medal of Service was instituted by Bishop William E. Lori in 2005 to recognize the men and women from across the diocese whose exemplary dedication to Christ and His Church is lived out in extraordinary service in the parishes, schools, and charitable works in the Church across Fairfield County.

This year, at ceremonies held at Saint Matthew Church in Norwalk on October 8, Bishop Caggiano presented the Saint Augustine Medal to six different Saint Aloysius parishioners for their service to the parish, diocesan charities, or diocesan schools.

Al Barber was awarded the medal for his great leadership of Catholic Charities in our diocese. I nominated Scott and Melanie Barnard who wished to receive the medal on behalf of all those who serve in quiet ways. Ed and Maura Gayer were recognized by Saint Aloysius School for their many years of commitment to the school. Mr. Adam Fielding, Principal of Saint Aloysius School nominated the Gayer's. Lisa Koslo was honored for her generous service to New Covenant Center in Stamford. Lisa was nominated by Michael Donoghue, Director of Catholic Charities.

Congratulations to all of the awardees, and may we be inspired by their commitment to the work of the Gospel!

Father Rob
