Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Christian Cleverness

Mark Twain once said: "A good lawyer knows the law; a clever one takes the judge to lunch."

The Gospel this weekend presents a surprising situation. The crafty steward is not the bad guy at the end of the story. In fact, his cleverness pleases his master and actually helps those he could have hurt by reducing their debt. He makes everyone happy by using his intelligence and rescues himself from the sin of exploitation. It's the best of Jesus's command to be "wise as serpents, innocent as doves."

If God has given us the gift of intellect, creativity, and wisdom, and if we desire to follow the example of Jesus who is Wisdom and Charity, then we should use what He has given us to transform the lives of those who are poor, suffering, lonely, and afraid.

I'll let St. Francis of Assisi have the last word on this:

Where there is charity and wisdom, there is neither fear nor ignorance. Where there is patience and humility, there is neither anger nor vexation. Where there is poverty and joy, there is neither greed nor avarice. Where there is peace and meditation, there is neither anxiety nor doubt.

Keeping you in prayer always,

Father Rob

ARE YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, RCIA, is an awakening to Christ and seeking out the Catholic Church that comes about in a variety of ways. The first step for some is a sense that "something is missing", that there is more to life than what they now have. For many others, the journey begins because of a relationship with a Catholic – a close friend or spouse. Some were baptized Catholic but did not receive any other sacraments. Still others are drawn by seeing the example of a Catholic life well lived.

The process is a series of carefully planned stages, marked by liturgical rites, in which those who are interested in becoming full Catholics join us in a continuing and deepening conversion into faith and discipleship. RCIA takes the spiritual needs of each person into account. At the Easter Vigil Mass candidates will receive those sacraments of initiation that they need – Baptism, the Eucharist, and Confirmation.

In mid-September our parish will begin weekly RCIA sessions in an open and welcoming environment. These gatherings are open to people who are unbaptized as well as those who are baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds.

Please contact Deacon Bill Santulli at 203-940-0711 or santulliw@starcc.com if you have questions or would like further information.

LIVING OUR CATHOLIC FAITH In a Secular World

Church of the Holy Spirit Speaker Series Event

Featuring: Damien O'Connor,

Vice President of Evangelization and Faith Formation at KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS SUPREME COUNCIL

Monday, September 19, 2022 at 7 PM

Holy Family Hall—403 Scofieldtown Rd. Stamford

The Good News is NOT Old News! And, it is not just "good" but Great News that can transform our hearts, our homes, our parishes, our schools and... Yes, even the World!

Living in the midst of the secular world's grip, it can be a struggle to remain hopeful and ever faithful sharing that hope and faith with others. These times call for a more than just-a-maintenance plan for survival, we are called by Christ to be missionaries witnessing to His Love with joy!

Damien's Talk will provide inspiration, hope and encouragement to live the faith with renewed vigor as missionary disciples, embracing the teachings of Jesus Christ and His Church.

"Ours is not an age of change, but a change of age."

-Pope Francis
