Words from Father Rob Kinnally

It Takes a Parish...

It all started when Paul Knag asked the Saint Aloysius Council Knights of Columbus to consider supporting some families fleeing Ukraine. Since I was sitting next to Paul, and because the Holy Spirit nudged me, I leaned over and said, "The parish will do this; we will support a family." And that is why not too long ago, I invited you to help the Kosenko Family of Ukraine begin a new chapter of their lives here in Connecticut. We had a special collection, and I asked you to contribute $50,000 to help make it possible to bring this family to a safe place to thrive, learn a new language, train for a new career, go to school, make new friends, and live without fear. You met the challenge, and we were able to welcome Andrii and Mariia and their two daughters Yelyzaveta and Varvara. They are settling in nicely and living in a house that was made available to them rent-free by Marie McColl, the longtime homeowner who lives not too far away and has been so hospitable and accommodating.

Marie's generosity is matched by the collective effort of many who helped with painting, landscaping, trips to the DMV, driving to English-as-a-Second-Language classes, and excursions to the grocery store, school offices, and the pediatrician. Some helped pick up furniture that was donated by parishioners and neighbors alike. Others acted as advocates and helped navigate the complicated immigration system, some secured insurance, some figured out job training and some gathered clothing for everyone in the family. All of it was done with efficiency, speed, and love. I am so proud of this committee of hard-working, clever, talented, and generous disciples who created a new life for the Kosenko's. And I am very grateful for Paul Knag who found the Kosenko's, handled the paperwork to get them here, and led our committee from idea to reality.

Thank you to the committee members for your generous hearts and very hard work: Dr. Bill Flynn, Tony and Sarah Leopold, Mike Simko, Judy Gilroy, Mary Beth Fessler, Alison Miller, Moira Cassidy, Caley Sayre, Denise Doonan, Harly Griffiths, Jenny Wellenius, Joan Jawrowski, Maryann DeFelice, Millie Florentine, Bob Schott, and Ron Kuzlik.

I can't wait for you to meet Andrii, Mariia, Yelyzaveta, and Varvara, so please join us on Sunday, September 18 at the 11:30 Mass where will give thanks for the safe journey of the Kosenko Family and where I can express my gratitude to the committee and all of you for your generosity and your prayers for this effort. Immediately following Mass, we will gather in the Saint Aloysius gym for a pancake breakfast prepared by the Knights of Columbus.

On this Labor Day Weekend, I pray that the Lord will give success to the work of your hands (Psalm 89).

Father Rob

~ School News ~

Saint Aloysius School Be a Part of It!

Saint Aloysius School is a Roman Catholic diocesan co-educational school for grades kindergarten through eighth. The school, using a traditional approach to learning, builds a strong educational foundation along with spiritual development, helping our students to develop the right moral compass to guide their decisions, big and small.

If you are interested in learning more about St. Aloysius Catholic School and would like to schedule a private tour, please reach out to admissions@sasnct.org

SACRAMENTAL LIFE OF THE PARISH

BAPTISM:

To schedule a Baptism, please call John Palma at 203-652-1140. Preparation for parents is held the 2nd Monday of each month. Please note that Godparents must demonstrate regular Mass attendance, be at least 16 years of age and have received the Sacrament of Confirmation.

MARRIAGE:

Call the John Palma at 203-652-1140 at least nine months prior to the wedding date.

SACRAMENT OF THE SICK:

If someone is ill at home or in the hospital, please call the Parish Office at 203-966-0020 to arrange for Communion and administration of the Sacrament of the Sick. Federal health information privacy laws prevent hospitals and other care facilities from releasing the names of patients to parish staff or clergy. If you or a family member is admitted to the hospital, please let the admitting staff know of your desire to have a clergy visit during your stay.

Weekly Adoration is Back!

Fridays from 7:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. (immediately following 7:00 a.m. Mass)

Our country has begun a National Eucharistic Revival with a mission to renew the Church by rekindling a living relationship with Jesus in the Holy Eucharist!

Adoration is a beautiful and grace-filled opportunity to sit in the presence of our Lord. We invite parishioners of all ages to stop in for a few minutes or sign up to spend an hour and be one of our adorers. An adorer ensures that there is someone with the Blessed Sacrament while others come and go. Sign up at www.signupgenius.com/go/8050544afaa23a4fe3-friday1

ARE YOU OR SOMEONE YOU KNOW INTERESTED IN THE CATHOLIC FAITH?

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, RCIA, is an awakening to Christ and seeking out the Catholic Church that comes about in a variety of ways. The first step for some is a sense that "something is missing", that there is more to life than what they now have. For many others, the journey begins because of a relationship with a Catholic – a close friend or spouse. Some were baptized Catholic but did not receive any other sacraments. Still others are drawn by seeing the example of a Catholic life well lived.

The process is a series of carefully planned stages, marked by liturgical rites, in which those who are interested in becoming full Catholics join us in a continuing and deepening conversion into faith and discipleship. RCIA takes the spiritual needs of each person into account. At the Easter Vigil Mass candidates will receive those sacraments of initiation that they need – Baptism, the Eucharist, and Confirmation.

In mid-September our parish will begin weekly RCIA sessions in an open and welcoming environment. These gatherings are open to people who are unbaptized as well as those who are baptized Christians from Protestant or Evangelical backgrounds.

Please contact Deacon Bill Santulli at 203-940-0711 or santulliwb@starcc.com if you have questions or would like further information.
