Words from Father Rob Kinnally

Pope Benedict in His Own Words

I have a special affinity for Pope Benedict XVI. He was elected a month before I was ordained to the priesthood, and I was delighted to receive a papal blessing bearing his photograph on the occasion of my ordination. I was in Rome on Church business on Benedict's last day as the Holy Father. Along with some of our seminarians, I attended his last public audience in Vatican Square and later stood on the Via Conciliazione and watched as a helicopter transported him from the papal apartments to his new quarters where he began his life of retreat and prayer as the first Pope Emeritus in 600 years.

I offer some of my favorite Pope Benedict XVI quotes: His words on eternal life, his message to young people about God's loving presence, his acknowledgement that music is a universal language, and his Advent speech on the importance of God revealing Himself in history – as a baby.

Eternal life will be like "immersing yourself in the ocean of infinite love where time -- a before and an after -- no longer exists. Fullness of life and joy: This is what we hope for and expect from our being with Christ."

—Angelus address Nov. 2, 2008

Know that God will never abandon you. Turn your eyes to him often. He gave his life for you on the cross because he loves you. Contemplation of this great love brings a hope and joy to our hearts that nothing can destroy. Christians can never be sad, for they have met Christ, who gave his life for them.

—World Youth Day message 2012

I hope that the harmony of song and music, which knows no social or religious barriers, represents a constant invitation to believers and all people of goodwill to look together for the universal language of love that enables people to build a world based on justice and solidarity, hope and peace.

—Remarks to German orchestra and choirs, Oct. 20, 2005

If in my life I fail completely to heed others, solely out of a desire to be 'devout' and to perform my 'religious duties,' then my relationship with God will also grow arid. It becomes merely 'proper,' but loveless. Only my readiness to encounter my neighbor and to show him love makes me sensitive to God as well. Only if I serve my neighbor can my eyes be opened to what God does for me and how much he loves me.

—Encyclical Deus Caritas Est, 2005

The Lord God did not counter the threats of history with external power, as we human beings would expect according to the prospects of our world. His weapon is goodness. He revealed himself as a child, born in a stable. This is precisely how he counters with his power, completely different from the destructive powers of violence. In this very way he saves us. In this very way he shows us what saves.

—Speech, Dec. 22, 2005

Father, eternal shepherd, hear the prayer of your people for your servant, Benedict, who governed your Church with love. In your mercy, bring him with the flock once entrusted to his care to the reward you have promised your faithful servants.

Father Rob

Teens ... Make a Spiritual New Year's Resolution for 2023

Romans 12:1-2 calls us to daily transformation of our minds so we can know and live out God's will for us. "I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Do not conform yourselves to this age but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and pleasing and perfect."

Perhaps you will ask for God's help to:

Come to Mass EVERY Sunday

- Attend 5pm Teen Mass with contemporary praise & worship band music and our "student section"
- Participate in monetary stewardship. Every Sunday bring cash to put into the basket ... give up something for the week and give what you would have spent on it to GOD!

Consider attending Daily Mass once-a-week or even just once-a-month

Our next Before School Teen Mass will be on February 3

HELP END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Tuesday Evening, January 17th
7:00 p.m. in Stapleton Hall

The Men's Spirituality Group, the Men's Bible Study, and the Knights of Columbus invite the men of St. Aloysius to a presentation on human trafficking, including its presence in our region, and how we can help survivors.

The Executive Director of the Partnership to End Human Trafficking (PEHT), Jamie Manirakiza, will speak to us and show a video to raise awareness about this tragic issue of sex and labor trafficking, child trafficking, and domestic and foreign trafficking.

Please join us to learn more about this issue of human exploitation and suffering. If you have questions, please send an email to st.aloysius.men@gmail.com.

St. Aloysius Church, New Canaan, CT

~ Parish News ~

Can you help bring Jesus to those in need?

St. Aloysius Parish is looking for help in bringing the Eucharist to Waveny Care Center, The New Canaan Inn, Brightview on New Canaan Avenue and Silverhill Hospital.

Your commitment would be only 1-1 1/2 hours every 6-8 weeks depending on the number of Eucharistic Ministers.

Fr. David will be holding a training after the 5:30 Mass on Monday January 23rd in the church.

We will have ministers from each facility to discuss what is needed after the training, and you will have the opportunity to shadow a current minister until you are comfortable going on your own.

Your gift of bringing the Eucharist to those in need will be returned 10 fold when you see the joy on their faces! Please consider joining us. We promise you will be amazed!

ALL WOMEN ARE INVITED

Please join our annual book discussion on Thursday, January 12th

at 10 a.m. in Stapleton Hall

Bring your own snack

Father David Franklin will lead us in a discussion of Walking with Mary, A Biblical Journey from Nazareth to the Cross by Edward Sri.
