Easter Hymn

*If in that Syrian garden, ages slain,
You sleep, and know not you are dead in vain,
Nor even in dreams behold how dark and bright
Ascends in smoke and fire by day and night
The hate you died to quench and could but fan,
Sleep well and see no morning, son of man.*

*But if, the grave rent and the stone rolled by,
At the right hand of majesty on high
You sit, and sitting so remember yet
Your tears, your agony and bloody sweat,
Your cross and passion and the life you gave,
Bow hither out of heaven and see and save.*

If this poem by AE Housman sounds a little “off” to you, that’s because it is written by a self-described non-believer. The work is a plea to Christ to make Himself known to the world – as proof of His existence and of His resurrection. In our sometimes-challenging world, we seek proof of God alive and truly present to us. The good news is that in our life as Catholic Christians we have that: in the living word of God (Scripture) in the Sacrament of the Eucharist where Christ is truly present in the form of bread and wine, and in the Church where we – the Body of Christ – gather to hear Him, receive Him, and experience Him in the gift of one another.

The church will be crowded on Easter because all of us – in various stages of belief – make our way to hear and experience Christ, truly risen. Why? Because we desire hope and it is in the Church that we learn that God desires the same for us. The proof is in Word, Sacrament and Encounter. Those who ran to the tomb of Jesus when they heard that he might have risen, saw the burial clothes, “but Him they did not see.” Then they gathered (like we do on Easter and every Sunday) to celebrate all that God had done through His Son Jesus for us. The height of their celebration was when Jesus Himself appeared – wounds intact, but fully alive, and truly present to them. The proof of God’s existence is in His love poured out in Jesus, and that’s why that Resurrection Sunday is so life-giving and life-changing. The reality of every Sunday is a loving encounter with the Risen Christ. Don’t miss that life-giving and life-changing gift ever!

Happy Easter!

~ Youth Ministry ~

Encounter and Accompaniment for Teens in StAY

Our high school teens are invited to come together in prayer, worship and service as we walk with them on their journey of faith. St. Aloysius offers a Teen Mass on Sundays at 5:00 p.m. where our Music Ministry sets the tone for our teen-friendly celebration of the Eucharist with upbeat, contemporary music blended with traditional hymns. Teens have the opportunity to sit together in community, serve as Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, readers, ushers, gift bearers and singers on our Sing-A-Long Sundays. Please contact Youth Minister Chris Otis to get involved in the many roles that are available at the Teen Mass.

We offer a monthly Before-School Teen Mass, Teen Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, a Teen Rosary Group, an opportunity to visit the sick at Waveny Care Center and pray the Rosary with them, as well as Teen Bible Groups where our girls and guys groups connect scripture to their lives as teens ... our boys doing this in Holy Hoops which integrates pick-up basketball with a halftime scripture/faith conversation.

St. Aloysius Church has a mission of engaging high school teens in service to our brothers and sisters in need. We serve as the Catholic Service Corps which aims to foster Catholic identity by uniting young people to be the face of Christian service to others. Our teens are engaged in outreach to children of single mothers in crisis, the elderly, the homeless and friends with special needs. This summer, we will be headed to Catholic Heart Workcamp for our summer mission trip, will attend the Steubenville East Youth Conference and will be helping to host a diocesan Summer Mission Day with other parishes on July 6.

Each time we witness our teens at the 5:00 p.m. Teen Mass, Teen Adoration, Teen Rosary, our Emmaus Teen retreats and the many opportunities to serve our brothers and sisters in need through the Catholic

Service Corps, we are in awe of the work Christ is doing through them! We have a beautiful community of passionate, committed missionary disciples of Christ who realize the importance of true personal encounter with the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit and the understanding that God continuously calls them to prayer, worship and service. They are the face of Christ to so many and do, as our Holy Father shares, spread the joy of the Gospel! If your teen has not joined us yet, we encourage you to reach out so we can help facilitate their involvement!

You can access signups for everything we do by going to <https://www.signupgenius.com/findasignup> and entering the email youth@starcc.com Not on our parent or student email lists? Contact Youth Minister Chris Otis at youth@starcc.com.

Are you an adult who is Roman Catholic, received your First Holy Communion but never the Sacrament of Confirmation?

If you would like to learn more about joining other adults in the Parish who are receiving this sacrament on Pentecost Sunday, May 28th, 2023, please contact Deacon Bill Santulli at santulliw@starcc.com.

The Celebration of the Sacraments of Initiation takes place at the Easter Vigil Liturgy. We have 4 catechumens receiving the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist, and 17 candidates receiving Confirmation and the Holy Eucharist. After many months of studying, they will be fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

What happens at the Easter Vigil? It is the night that "shall be as bright as day" as we joyfully anticipate Christ's Resurrection. It begins with the Service of Light, which includes the blessing of the new fire and Paschal candle symbolizing Jesus, the Light of the World. The second part consists of the Liturgy of the Word with several readings from the Old and New Testament.

After the Liturgy of the Word, the catechumen and candidates are presented to the parish community. Those seeking baptism then renounce sin and profess their faith and are Baptized. The newly Baptized are dressed in white garments to symbolize that they are washed clean of sin. All RCIA participants are then Confirmed and at Communion they receive the Eucharist.
