St. Aloysius Church, New Canaan, CT

Words from Monsignor Rob Kinnally

Christmas Thank-You's and a Few Other Words

How amazing it was to see so many people at Christmas Masses this year! The church looked beautiful, the music inspired, and spirits were high as we welcomed the newborn King. As you can imagine, it takes a great number of hard-working and creative souls to make Christmas happen at Saint Aloysius. So, let me express my deepest gratitude to those who helped make this a truly special Christmas season for our parish family.

Thanks to...Judy, John, and Gregg Strba and the crew from Gregg's Landscaping for the design and installation of the church decorations. Each year they come up with something different, and this year we received a record number of compliments! Trisha Albus for her many contributions to the beauty of Christmas and her gift of flowers and their care throughout the year. Working with Trisha is a faithful team of helpers, who, among other things, watered and cared for the poinsettias and trees. Dr. John Michniewicz, our choristers, and orchestra for enhancing our worship and lifting our hearts. Nancy Leville and Emily Lomnitzer who lead our splendid children's choir. My brother Knights of Columbus who directed traffic and kept everyone safe in the parking lot and served as greeters and ushers at Masses. Christine Ayoub who coordinates our usher ministry. Guillermo "Willie" Roeder and Angel Dominguez who take great care of our church and other buildings all year long. My brother priests and Deacons: Father David, Father Franklin, Father Bob, Father Tim, and Deacon Bill. They serve with joy, and I am blessed with their fellowship. Our faithful Readers and Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion who proclaim the Word and distribute the Body of Christ with reverence. Special thanks to Joanne Santulli, Leigh Fiorito, and Christine Otis who coordinate these ministries. Our dedicated Altar Servers, and our faithful sacristan Michael Musilli who spends countless hours in the sanctuary and behind the scenes to make certain that every liturgy runs smoothly.

I am blessed with an amazing staff, some of whom were mentioned above, but the rest of the team works tirelessly to serve you: John Palma, Lynn Turiano, Jerry Murray, Susan Kieman, Danielle Sibilis, Marie Osterdorf, Sister Donna Brodman, Mark Murphy and Allison McCarthy. Many volunteers help us out weekly, and we couldn't do what we do without them, so thanks to: Danielle Balsamo, Pat Colangelo, Rita Ferri, Patrick and Helen McBrien, Andy Toner, Sally Doelger, Liza Paglialunga, Keelin Weiss and Elaine Kilbourn

The Parish Finance Committee and Pastoral Council are talented advisors to me and were particularly helpful this past year as we faced the challenges and joys of meeting expenses and launching a capital campaign. Thanks to Bill Fox, Colette LeBrun, Christine Ayoub, Christopher Nolan, Nick Yanicelli, Bill Cody, Dick Laughton, Bob Naughton, Buddy Kretzman, Mike Dougherty, Chuck Nardi, Shannon Marciano, Joanne Santulli, Shawn and Erin Regan, Larry Luppi and Bill Fessler. Special thanks to Christine Hussey and Steve Schlegel, the trustees of our parish corporation, for their counsel. (I'll express my thanks to the We Stand with Christ Capital Campaign Committee as we head toward the end of the campaign next month.) Last, but not least, I thank YOU for your faith, prayers, stewardship, and support throughout the year.

One more thing...I was humbled by "becoming" a Monsignor. I have been privileged to work in a variety of ministries in our diocese since my ordination 18 years ago. Each one was a gift, but the joy of serving as pastor of Saint Aloysius is a special gift, so the honor I received is a reflection of your faithfulness and love for Christ and the Church. Monsignors Don Guglielmi and Bob Crofut are more worthy of the honor than I am, and I am delighted that the three of us will be with our bishop at a special Mass on April 16 at 5pm at Saint Aloysius. All are welcome

Monsignor Rob

Luminaries for Life & Eucharist Adoration & Procession of Life Friday, January 20th

Our parish will be hosting many different opportunities to allow our parishioners and others from the Diocese to showcase their belief in respect for life! Light is a sign of HOPE and Youth Ministry will draw attention to the hope for an increase in the respect for life by forming a team to put up and light the luminaries that will be in front of the church that evening.

We need the help of our high school teens in the following ways

Do one, do two or do all three!

Sign up at: <https://www.signupgenius.com/go/10C084DAFAD2CAAFB6-luminaries1>

3:30-4:30 pm

Work alongside our Confirmation students to put together the Luminaries for Life and pray a Rosary for Life with them.

4:15-5:15 pm

Place and light our Luminaries for Life

6:00 - 6:45 pm

Represent our teen population at the Diocesan Eucharistic Adoration & Procession for Life with music, a witness talk, homily by Msgr. Rob and a procession of the Blessed Sacrament around the church. High School teens invited to gather afterwards for fellowship and food back in Stapleton Hall!

HELP END HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Tuesday Evening, January 17th
7:00 p.m. in Stapleton Hall

The Men's Spirituality Group, the Men's Bible Study, and the Knights of Columbus invite the men of St. Aloysius to a presentation on human trafficking, including its presence in our region, and how we can help survivors.

The Executive Director of the Partnership to End Human Trafficking (PEHT), Jamie Manirakiza, will speak to us and show a video to raise awareness about this tragic issue of sex and labor trafficking, child trafficking, and domestic and foreign trafficking.

Please join us to learn more about this issue of human exploitation and suffering. If you have questions, please send an email to st.aloysius.men@gmail.com.

Total of Pledges as of January 6:	$14,442,439
Campaign Goal:	$26,000,000
Number of Donors:	180
Campaign End Date:	February 28

Thank you to those who have pledged! We need everyone – no matter what the gift – to reach our goal! I'm continuing to work with potential donors who are determining the best way to give. Corporate matching is still a viable option. Allison McCarthy (amccarthy@starcc.com) can help with any questions, including memorials or other naming opportunities. And remember that pledges can be made over a five-year period. Please visit our parish website to learn more about this exciting project. Thank you for prayerfully considering a generous pledge!

Construction update: work has begun on the new heating and air conditioning system in the church, we are getting ready for the first phase of demolition on the school building, the construction team is working with a number of experts on addressing the 30 Maple Street demolition delay, drawings are complete for the renovation of the rest rooms and confessionals in the church, and we are moving along in our conversations with green energy groups as we explore geothermal and solar energy.

~ Parish News ~

Can you help bring Jesus to those in need?

St. Aloysius Parish is looking for help in bringing the Eucharist to Waveny Care Center, The New Canaan Inn, Brightview on New Canaan Avenue and Silverhill Hospital.

Your commitment would be only 1-1 1/2 hours every 6-8 weeks depending on the number of Eucharistic Ministers.

Fr. David will be holding a training after the 5:30 Mass on Monday January 23rd in the church.

We will have ministers from each facility to discuss what is needed after the training, and you will have the opportunity to shadow a current minister until you are comfortable going on your own.

Your gift of bringing the Eucharist to those in need will be returned 10 fold when you see the joy on their faces! Please consider joining us. We promise you will be amazed!

At times we can experience significant difficulties leaving us feeling isolated and alone. If you, or someone you know, is experiencing a difficult life situation such as: the loss of a loved one, a medical crisis, long-term illness or disability, divorce, family separation, or the loss of a job – please consider reaching out to a Stephen Minister.

Stephen Ministers at St. Aloysius are specifically trained lay Catholic men and women who accompany people emotionally and spiritually through difficult situations. The name for this ministry comes from St. Stephen, the first deacon chosen to assist the Apostles in their ministry fulfilling Our Lord's mission to care for those most in need of God's love. A Stephen Minister will meet one-on-one with anyone who is in need to provide a confidential, patient, and non-judgmental listening ear. We want every parishioner to know that you do not need to carry your cross alone.

If you, or someone you know, might benefit from speaking with a Stephen Minister, or to learn more about becoming a Stephen Minister, please contact Fr. David at frdavid@starcc.com.
